Mrs. Dietrich-
I'm on the threshold of a dream & its been made wonderful & possible by people like you. I love this book & thank you from the bottom of my heart for the hours you put in helping guiding me toward the final goal - The '78
Cougar! Thanks for making it possible! It was one thing that made this year bearable!

ON THE THRESHOLD OF A DREAM

We pause on the threshold of a dream. Each of us hoping, expecting, anticipating what follows graduation, our graduation, from Kutztown Area High School. We realize now that we can almost reach out and touch that day when it will be our turn to clutch commencement flowers, blue and white tassles, and diplomas with the messages of our commencement speaker still echoing in our minds. We anticipate marching for the last time from the stage past parents, relatives, and friends into a world where we no longer will be high school students, high school seniors. That chapter of our lives will be completed and we'll step out into our separate tomorrows, pursuing our individual goals.

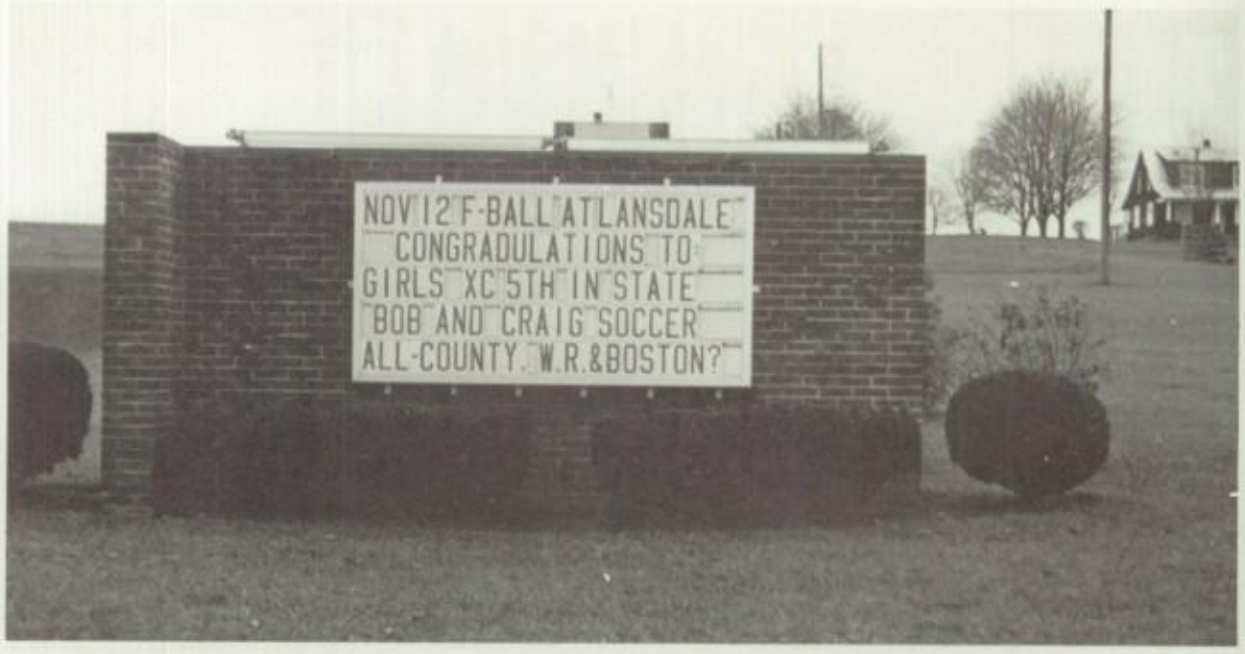
As we pause on the threshold of our dreams, we remember our days at K.A.H.S., that collage of experiences that springs from our memories when we think of high school; those moments filled with smiles or frowns, cheers and tears, struts and stumbles. We recall class play laughs and sports thrills, pizza at lunch time and the Halloween Parade, Christmas Vacation and the first snow day, crowded halls and morning announcements, English class in the chemistry lab and study halls in the auditorium. And more, so much more.

Pleasant Dreams End, A KAHS School Day Begins

The alarm clock sounds and we awake from a dreamy sleep. It's time to dress, have breakfast and then wait for the school bus or hit the pavements, all of us moving toward Constitution Boulevard and those hallowed but crowded halls of Kutztown Area High School. Another year begins; another day begins.

We push through those double doors and mingle amid the sea of humanity flooding the lobby awaiting the 7:50 buzzer that signals the spilling of bodies into the halls past Mr. Martin and Mr. Butler and on to lockers to sort out books, deposit gym bags, and take a mental inventory of the day. Then it's rush to homeroom, or chorus or band as the 8 o'clock buzzer echoes in our ears. Over the intercom Jack Schonely announces, "Everyone please rise . . . . . ."

Now for us it's a familiar routine, a part of the school ritual. But not for always. At some certain tomorrow it will be a piece of that dream that was high school.



A familiar sign greets students as they arrive each morning at KAHS.

A bike-filled rack suggests that 7:55 is approaching at KAHS.

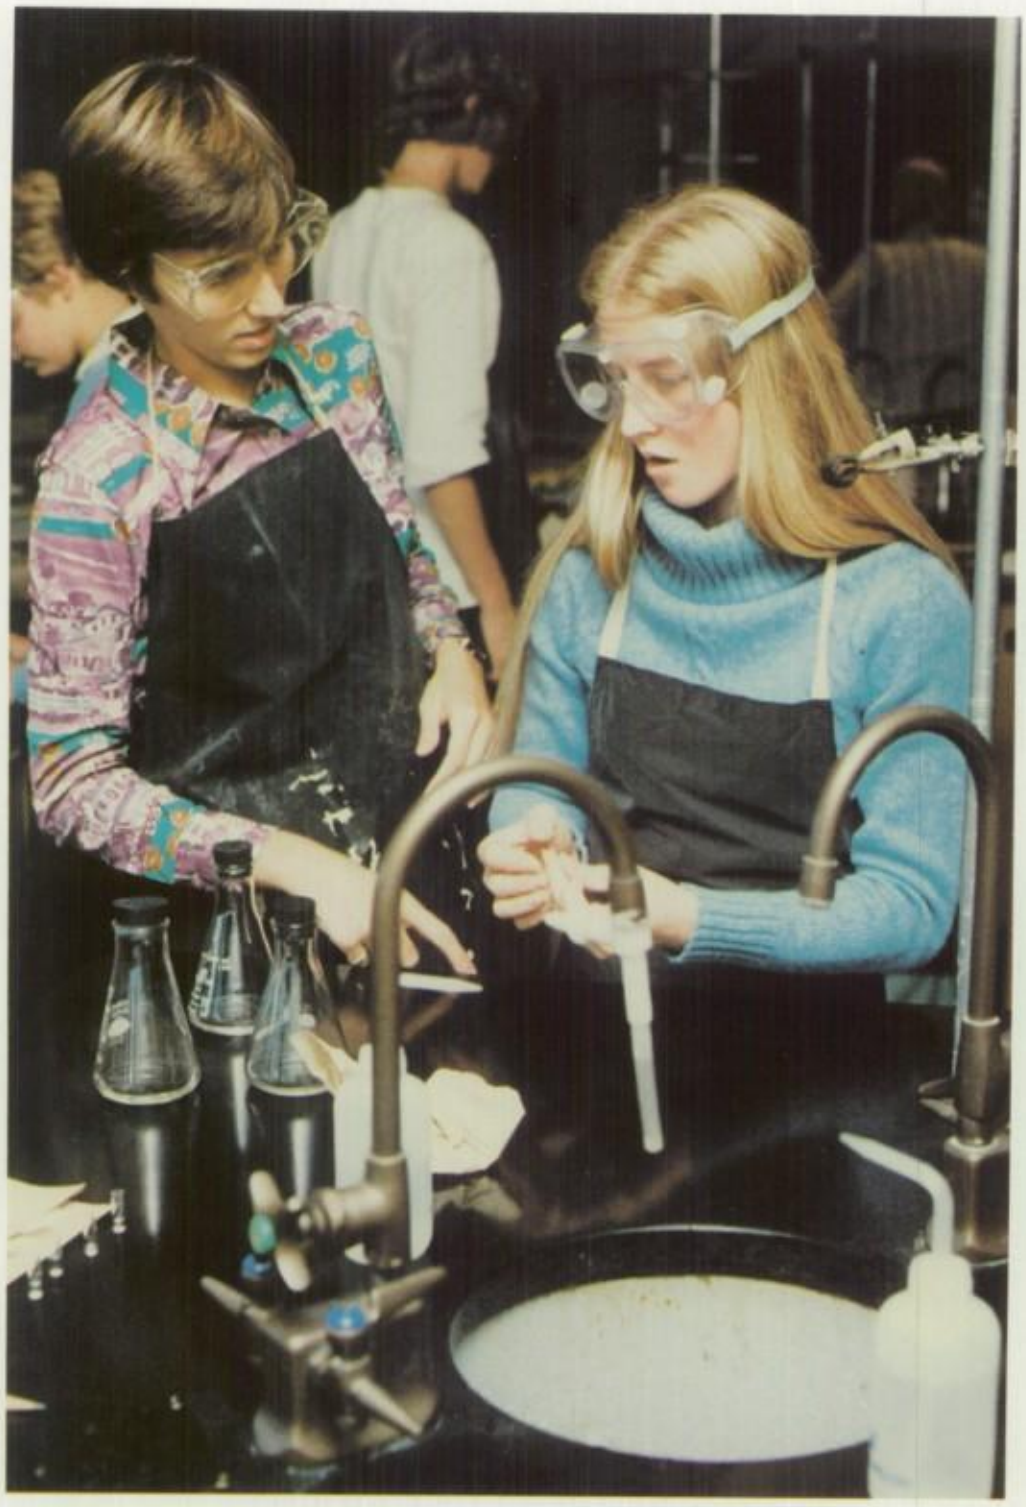
Another day!

Silence rules the empty halls.

Todd Reppert checks in at his locker before heading down to do the morning announcements.

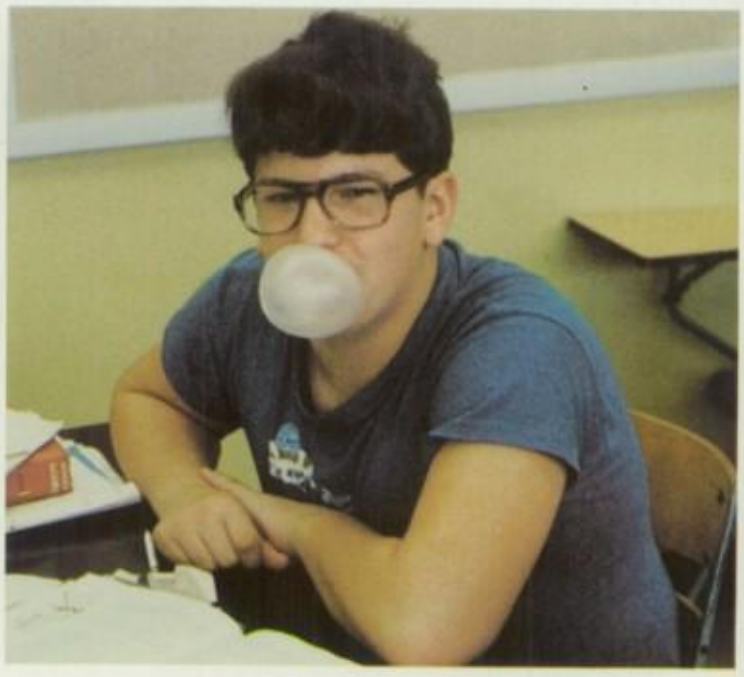
Tom, Todd, Bobby wait for 8 o'clock and the beginning of the morning announcements.

Bedlam breaks loose as the once empty halls fill with students moving to their morning classes.

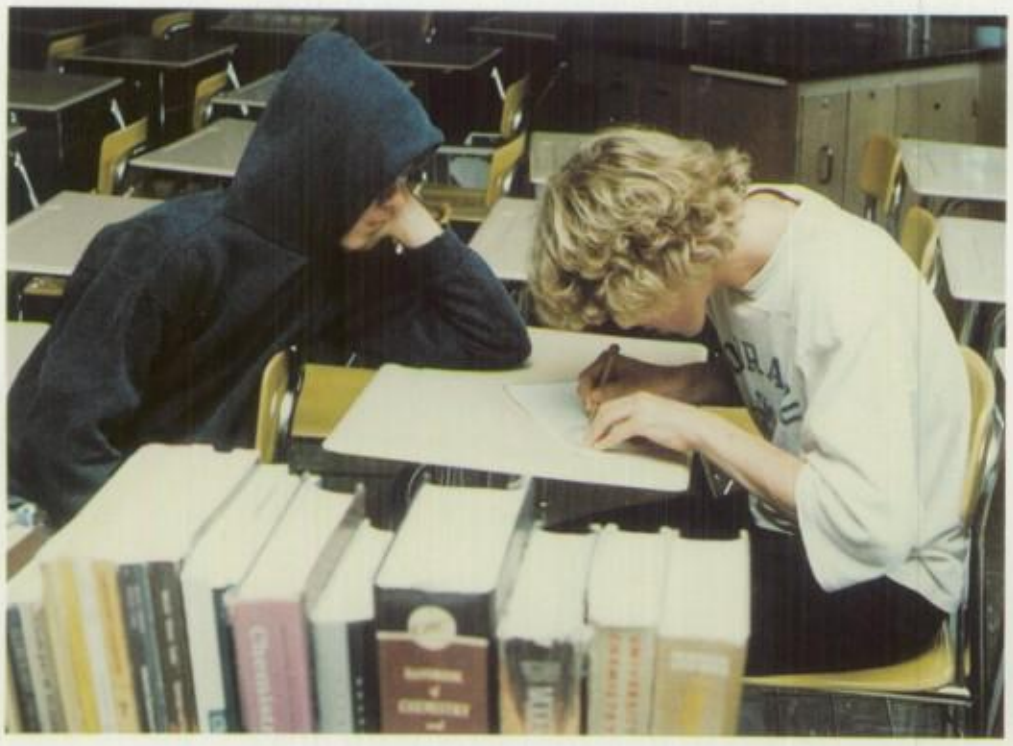


Hours in the Chem Lab help Lisa and Denise solve some of sciences mysteries.

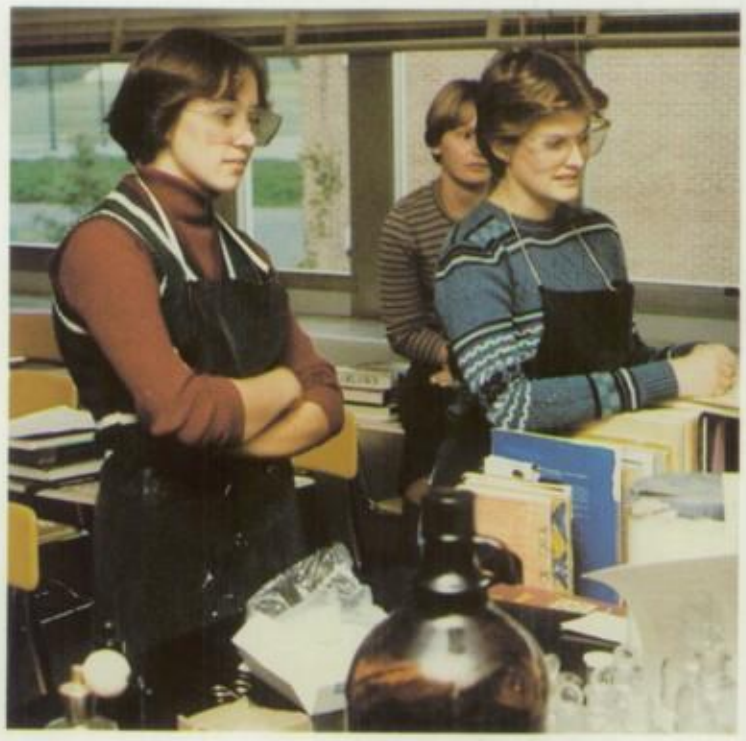
"Try again Danielle. Better luck next time."



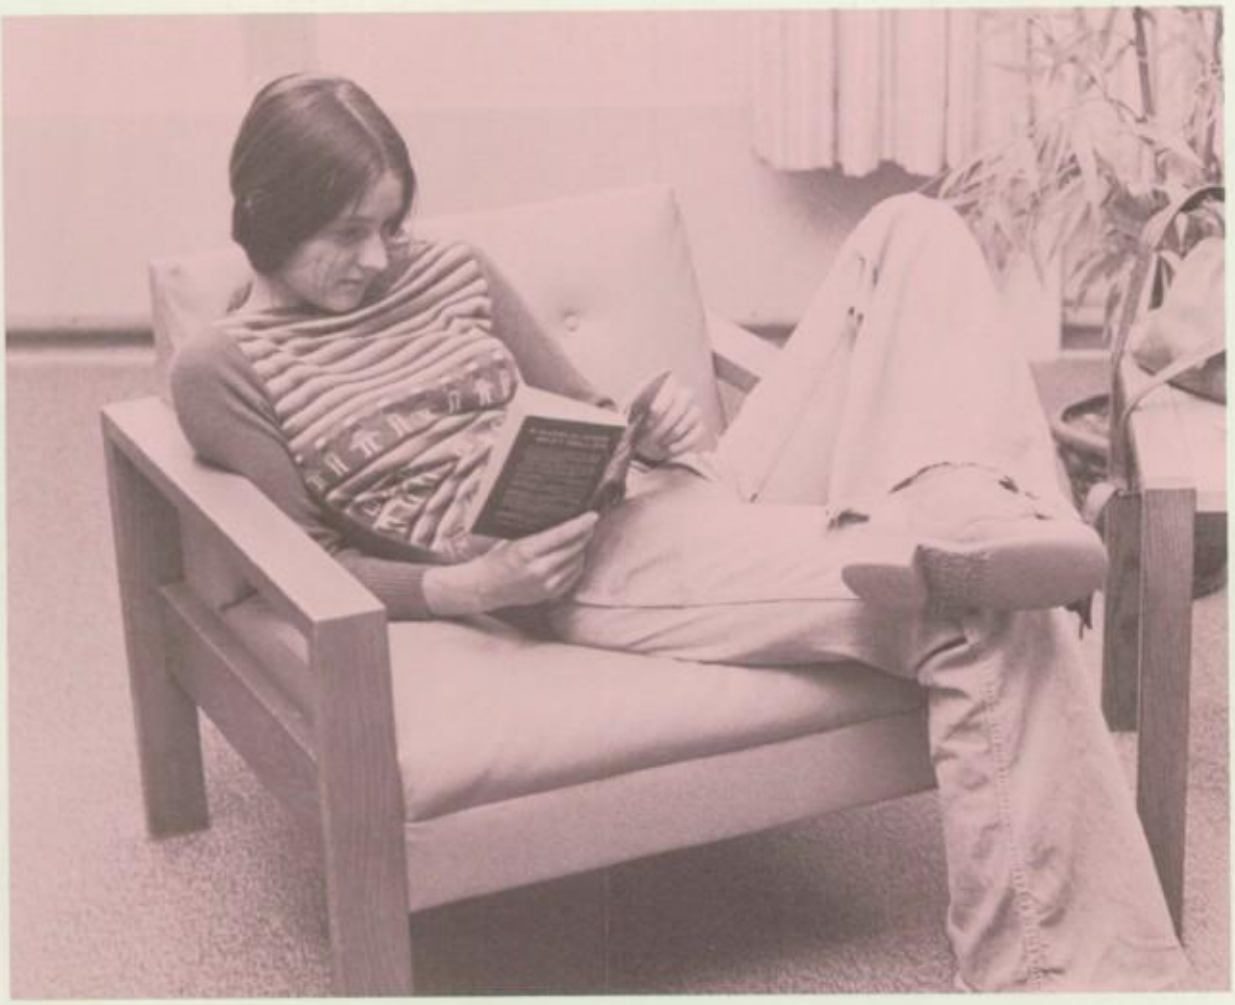
Everybody knows Bazooka improves concentration.



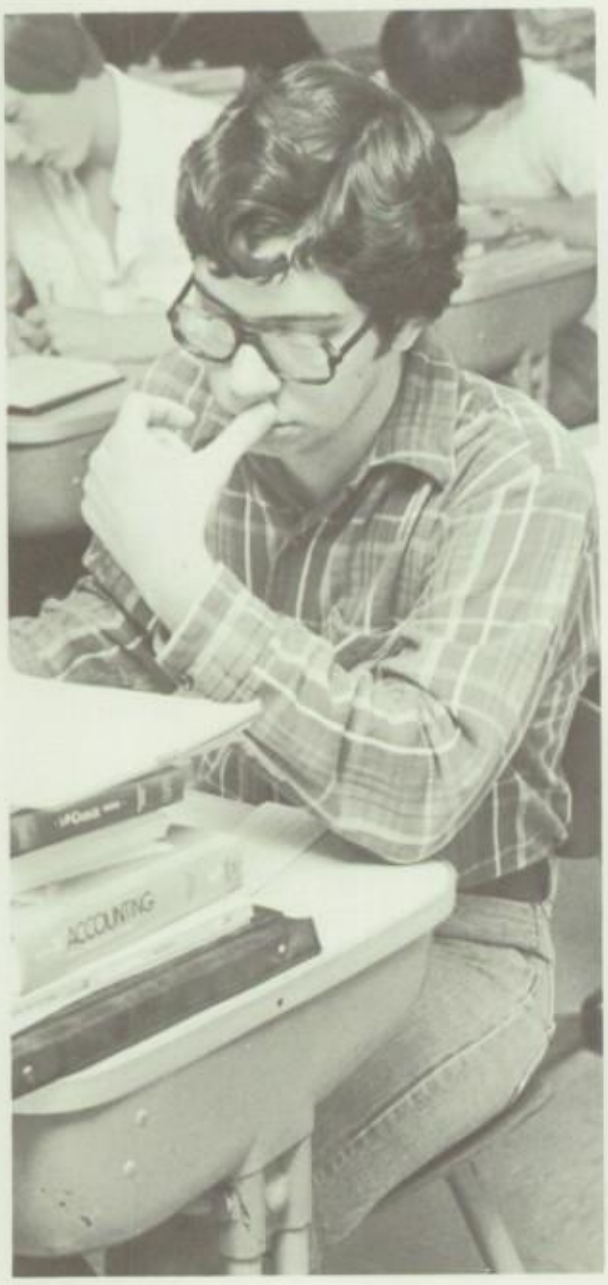
Seniors Joel Carroll and Sam Yoder take a few moments to study a chemistry problem.



Barbie DeTurk and Sandy Kemp listen to words of advise from chemistry teacher, Mr. Riedel.

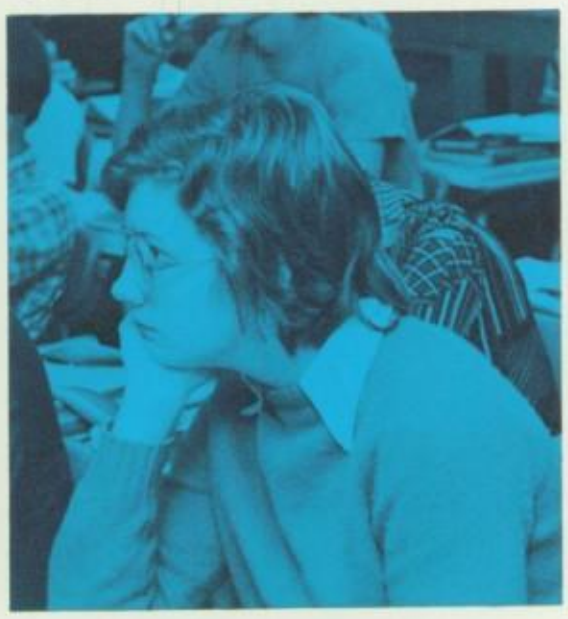


The library offers students an opportunity to catch up on reading assignments.



Senior Brian Koller ponders over a trig problem.

Physics provides Diane Evans with an opportunity for mental exercise.



That's okay, Vic, it's Friday.

High School? It's Academic

Calculus, Accounting I, Chemistry, Shakespeare, American Government . . . It's physics problems and new vocabulary words in German class; it's a biology microscope slide and a trigonometry table; it's academics. It's struggling to understand and then suddenly another insight and we have grown another intellectual notch. We're that much closer, following the dream that will lead to an occupational career or possible several careers when we step into the working world.

To help us conquer those academic obstacles there are teachers who lead us through chem labs and physics experiments, linear problems and Spanish translations and others instructing us in helpful skills like typing, mastering the keys, "f space, f space." Practice, practice . . . Drill, drill. Questions asked, and questions answered.

We go, we grow, from class to class.

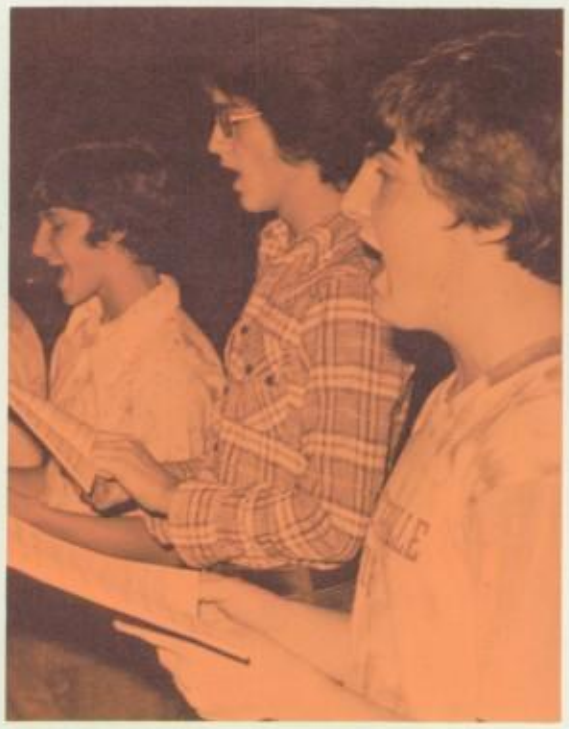
Variety Is The Spice Of Extra-Curricular Life

Crowds shout, "Touchdown, touchdown, we want a touchdown", . . . Applause resounds through the auditorium and cast members take their bows, for jobs well done in MEANWHILE BACK ON THE COUCH . . . The girl's cross-country team boards the van for State College to compete in the state championship cross-country meet . . . Twenty-Eight Large sing and dance and strut their stuff to "Sir Duke" . . . Its Homecoming Day at Kutztown and band members salute soon to be departed seniors, "For old acquaintance be forgot . . . " Yearbook staff meets after school on a Wednesday . . . Now that football and soccer are over basketball and wrestling can begin. Practice . . . Practice . . . When do rehearsals for HOW TO SUCCEED start? County Band? County Chorus? . . . The Junior Class is pleased to announce that this year's edition of the Junior-Senior Prom will be held at Stokesay Castle . . . Drill front . . . Majorettes . . . Cheerleaders . . . Golf . . . Tennis . . . Track . . . Baseball . . . and more.

Did we really hear somebody say that there's nothing to do? When is there time to sleep and dream?

Girls varsity hockey players get ready for battle.

"No Albert, Not now!"



Devoted pop group members make singing an art.

"Okay, who's got the ball?"

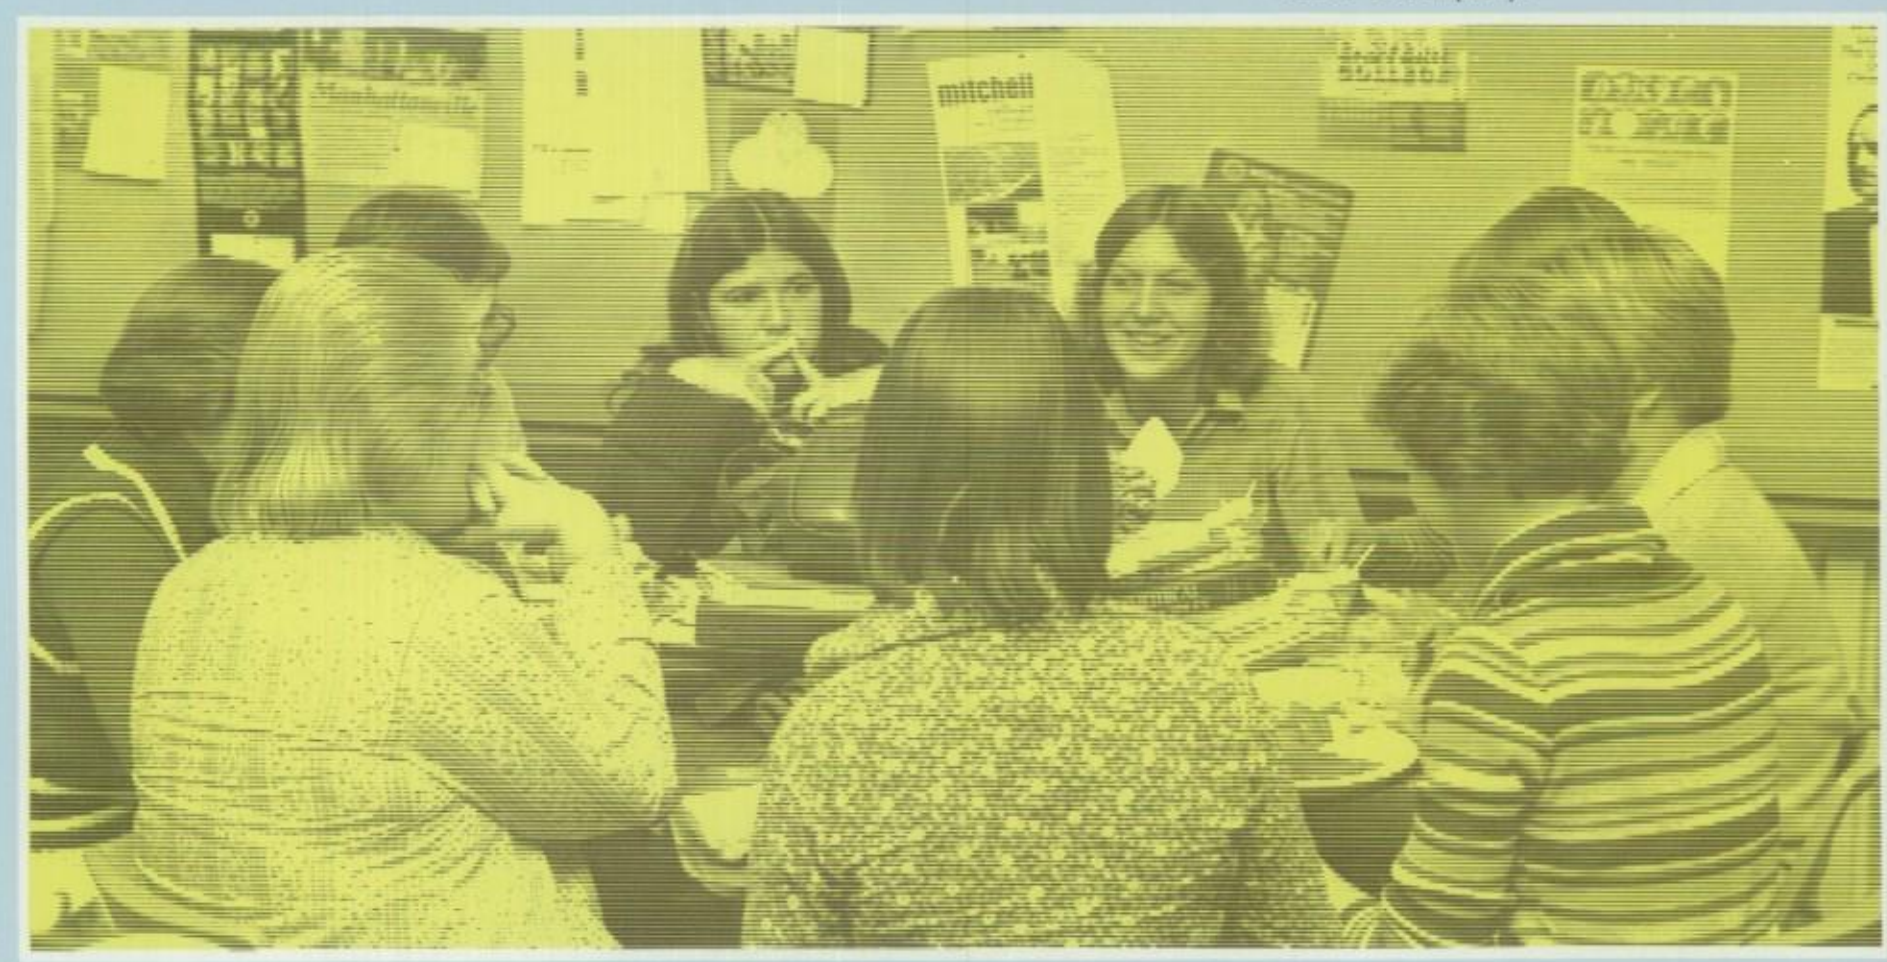
Faces in the crowds suggest the varying moods of a KAHS football game.

Lunchtime is a welcome break from the daily grind.

Well, it isn't Colonel Sanders . . . .

Senior Sandy Reed moves in for the kill.

Tom Wessner and Jo Schwoyer enjoy each other's company.



There's nothing like an empty table at lunch time.

A new addition to the senior high cafeteria - junior high lunches.

If It's Tuesday, This Must Be Pizza

It's 11:55 A.M. The buzzer rings. Follow that crowd. Third lunch begins. Rush down the hall to the shortest line, fill the tray, reach for change, find a table. Oops! Forgot the salt. Collapse into a chair and finally relax. The morning round of classes is over and its time for our daily bread, the musical sounds of The Eagles, and some juicy . . . gossip. It's that half-hour of heaven we call lunch.

Before we know it, 12:26 has arrived and it's time to gulp down half a captain crunch before we leave the cafeteria and head for that academic no-man's-land known as periods six, seven, and eight. Well, study hall, art and gym class aren't all that bad.

"How many calories were in that brownie, Kim?"

Nutritious food builds strong bodies.

"No gravy on the potatoes, please."

Junior High School Students Swell Senior High Population

Suddenly the senior high school becomes a junior-senior high school and spacious accommodations become cramped quarters. Displaced teachers mean English class in the Chemistry lab, social studies in the accounting room. And who are all these little people? Seventh graders? Did we really look like that?

Between classes, wall to wall carpet fills with wall to wall people and bodies inch up the halls. Extra tables and chairs get squeezed into the cafeteria and first lunch begins at 10:25 A.M. Cherrios, anyone? But we make it work, and in the process we discover it's not the place that is important, it's the company we keep.

Senior high school halls fills with junior high school students.

Nothing like a little "contact" at lunch.

Something different - study halls in the auditorium.

Yearbook staffers, Sue and Debbie, patiently wait back stage while the photographers take senior portraits.

Study halls in the cafeteria aren't so bad after all.

A string bass locker becomes a quiet study hall for Cindy Schadler.

A crowded cafe during lunch becomes a crowded study hall seventh period.

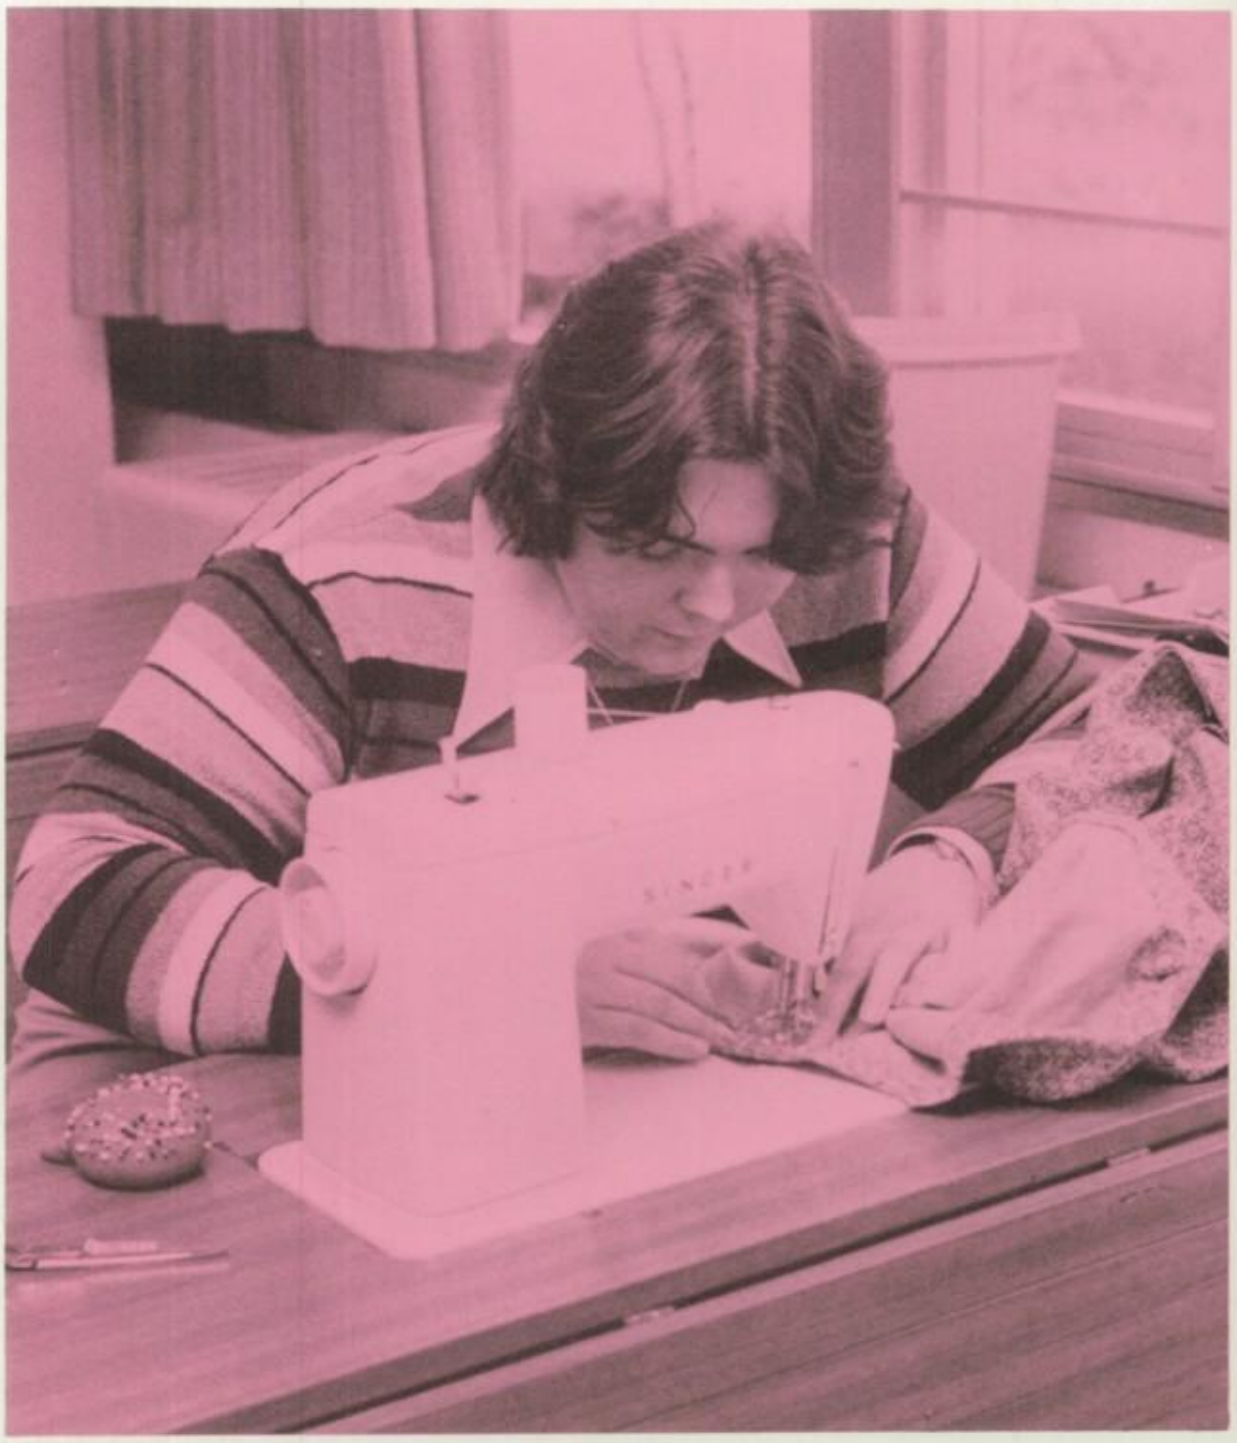
A Variety Of Electives Fill The School Day

Kutztown Area High School offers its students much more than the three R's. A wide range of elective offerings fill up those extra periods in the day. Students who seek occupational skill have opportunity to attend the Berks Vocational-Technical School. Here K.A.H.S. students can learn to master anything from plumbing to cosmetology to food preparation. Another option is D.O.E., Diversified Occupational Education, a work release program.

We who spend the whole day at Kutztown fill schedules with arts and crafts such as jewelry making or ceramics. For the musically inclined we might choose music theory, or how about domestic skills? The kitchen and the sewing machine offer other creative challenges.

Helping out at the elementary school may also fill some idle moments for senior class members. We truck on across the grassy area that separates the high school world from the world of A B C's and number facts to "play teacher" for elementary kids who need some extra help.

So many opportunities, so little time.



Home Ec gives students like Janet another opportunity to create.

Art class offers Andy Schaeffer a chance to display his artistic qualities.

Shop class combines skills of mind & body.

"Now girls, cat is spelled with a C, not a K."

The soccer team loosens up before an important home soccer game.

Debbie Dietrich takes time out to page through a library magazine.

Worried looks reflect tense moments during a KAHS field hockey contest with Fleetwood.

Students enjoy a few minutes of conversation while waiting for the buses to leave.

The once filled bike rack is now emptying as 3:00 has passed.

It's okay, you can come back tomorrow.

The doors of KAHS open as students file out in search of their bus.

ACTIVITIES

Yearbook Staffers Collect Memories

BELOW: LAYOUT STAFF: SEATED IN FRONT: Dale DuBois, Diane DuBois, Renee Wiltrout, Jo Schwoyer, Kim DeLong, Andrea Gardner. We walked past the typing room and heard chatter and the banging of typewriters. Heading on up the hall, we saw the art room, filled with people creating ideas and working diligently. Why all the after-school activity? Yearbook was in progress.

The yearbook falls together each year through the time, talents, and combined efforts of the layout, business, and copy staffs. Supervising the editors were our three competent advisors—layout, Mrs. Dietrich; business, Mr. Haring; and copy, Mr. Shaw. Under their direction and leadership our editors and staff spent many late nights meeting deadlines. Layout, under the capable guidance of Lori Luckenbill and Juli Kelly, plotted each page, making sure every picture was cropped just right. Taking orders, typing copy, and getting ads was only a small part of the job the business staff, directed by Kim Oswald, formed to handle the financial end of the deal. Arlene Crumrine instructed the copy staff to write imaginative articles to fill in the total picture. Art staff, headed by Shana Badders, finished the book with creative masterpieces which made our book complete.

Special thanks go to our editors and advisors for the support and guidance they gave us through the production of the '78 COUGAR.

KAHSPER - short form for Kutztown Area High School, Press of Education and Recreation - with its small staff, had another busy year of rushing around trying to get articles in on time.

With editor, Gail Kitson and advisor Mrs. Bodnyk working side by side, the paper managed to be published and distributed about once a month.

Even though the staff was small, they managed to fill the paper with news, sports, editorials, and opinions . . . time and effort was all it took.

This year thirty-one new members were inducted into the National Honor Society. At a special candlelight ceremony, while parents and other members looked on, twenty-four juniors and seven seniors were recognized for their intellectual and academic achievements. Speeches concerning the four qualities of the society - character, leadership, service, and scholarship were read by president Lisa Lutz and other senior members. It is these qualities that best describe the characteristics of this organization.

Some events being planned by the officers, Lisa Lutz, Randy Wert, and Samuel Yoder, along with advisors, Mr. John Viglione and Mrs. Marcia Skiles, include a dance, a trip to Lehigh University, and a picnic in June.

Aides Deserve Recognition

As students of KAHS, we have a variety of electives we can select to fill our spare time. Seniors who choose a career in elementary education are given an opportunity to become elementary aides, at Kutztown Elementary School. Some of the aide's tasks may include constructing bulletin boards or correcting papers. The seniors that participate in this learning experience provide assistance to teachers while at the same time students are given a chance to investigate their career plans more thoroughly.

Secretaries can always use extra help with phones that need to be answered or messages to be delivered. Those are some of the tasks that our efficient office aides practice each day. They are always willing to lend a helping hand in exchange for assistance in practicing secretarial skills as secretaries.

To manage a large room with shelves of books, research materials, and magazines, Mrs. Scheel and Mrs. Curry can always use the assistance that library aides provide. Filing books and giving fellow students assistance in finding materials helps to provide a friendly atmosphere and encourages students to use the library more frequently.

One way of conveying information to students is by using the media. Tape recorders, cameras, and projectors are only a small sample of what the audio visual crew can provide in the classroom to help make learning more enjoyable.

Who are the students who dedicate themselves in assisting activities such as assemblies, concerts, and class plays? The stage crew demonstrates the talents of students with unique abilities to provide that special lighting, sound effects, and props that make KAHS activities more special.

Student Council The Voice Of The Students

BELOW: STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: Lisa Lutz, sec.; Mark Mohler, pres.; Denise Greenawald, treas.; Jan Luckenbill, vice-pres. BELOW RIGHT: Mr. William Riedel, advisor. CENTER: Student store in operation. FAR BELOW: STUDENT COUNCIL MEMBERS: IN FRONT: Melissa Saul, Rhonda Reichert, Craig Koller, Lisa Lutz, Denise Greenawald, Margaret Greenawald, Brenda Wisser, Taren Badders, Karen Rauch, Debbie Walker, Jill Herman, Dawn Werley, Hallie Oswald, Steve Geist. ROW 3: Sandra Reeves, Jeff Rarick, Howard Stark, Clark Frederick, Bob DuBois.

This year the KAHS Student Council underwent changes. The size of the council was reduced so it could operate more efficiently. Each homeroom elected only one representative, and the vo-tech students elected separate representatives to the council.

Though the council had fewer members, the organization maintained the programs which have become a way of life at KAHS. Council supported the breakfast program, the student store, and the school newspaper, KAHSPER. Members also continued the services of the Grievance Committee, which heard student complaints and tried to remedy them. Aside from their in-school activities, the council continued their support of a child through the Children's Christian Fund.

The Student Council, under Mr. Riedel's supervision, helped students through the school year by operating special programs and by supporting activities such as dances and assemblies.

The Twenty - Eight Large Move Into Competition

During the past four years, the 28 Large has climbed to great heights. At first, the pop group was simply a select chorus that performed at concerts and certain school activities. But the group's performances have increased in number and variety since the time when this year's senior members were starting out as freshmen.

The years that followed that first year showed the pop group moving into community performances and radio broadcasting, to a competition that they participated in this year in which they received an outstanding award.

Besides performing fantastically at the competition, they gave very good Christmas and spring concerts. Once again winning people's applause with the smiling faces and tricky dance routines.

The pop group continues to climb upward and onward with talent, and dedication to the performances which musical delights.

People Flock To Hear Best Chorus Ever

The 1978 chorus was the biggest and best chorus ever to hit the risers since choir director Mrs. Knauer arrived in Kutztown four years ago. If you counted heads while the chorus filed in during the spring and Christmas concerts you would have added up to a grand total of 180 members. However, quality did not suffer for quantity. The performances met and topped the standards established in previous concerts. As the chorus grows in size and the quality of its performances increases, its importance as a part of the music department and and concerts grows and will continue to grow with each passing year.

The Spirited KAHS Band Front Struts Their Stuff

An added attraction to the KAHS marching band is the band front. The front consists of the color guard, rifle corps, flag unit, and majorettes. At the head of the band is the color guard, led by Linda Scheiwe, Sargent-at-Arms. Next in line is the flag unit, headed by Donna Lesher, and the rifle unit, with captain Julie O'Neil. Following the rifle corps are the baton twirling majorettes captained by Lisa Lutz. Feature twirler this year was Joanne Kaminski.

The individual units practice under the guidance of Ms. Donna Pollard. They develope their own original routines which they perform at parades. The band front also performs during half-time at KAHS football games. The band front, along with the entire band, received an excellent rating in a competition sponsored by Schuykill Valley High School.

The enthusiasm and devotion of the band front members can be seen in the many hours spent practicing routines. The band front is an essential part of the KAHS marching band.

Cougar Band Moves To The Field

As the KAHS Cougar Band marches onto the football field, we are acutely aware of how much of the KAHS concert band is present in the performance. Although there is a new band performing those complicated drills and maneuvers, the old concert band is still there practicing that fantastic music.

Three years ago the band moved from concerts and simple street marching onto the football field. Now it not only maintains a reputation as a fine concert band but has also built a reputation as a fine marching band, that has marched in Atlatic City and competed in two field competitions, receiving outstanding awards.

Now students begin their training in junior high school so that only the finishing touches are being added in senior high. With this in its favor the KAHS Band has a very promising future.

Kutztown's Big K Jazz Lab was invited this year to participate in several jazz festivals including the Daniel Boone Festival and the Brandywine Festival, both held in April. The Big K Jazz Lab also played for three concerts and numerous assemblies throughout the year, always pleasing the audience with the group's large repertoire of jazz, rock, and pop music. The twenty-seven piece musical aggregation was led by director, Mr. Richard Huyett and assistant director, Mr. Jack Taylor.

Vo - Tech Prepares Students For The Working World

Competition for positions in worthwhile occupations continues to intensify in contemporary American society. These who are not keenly aware of the fact that there are too few jobs for too many workers are the young adults who are entering the working world. Any advantage that can be gained is worth pursuing, and helping students gain that advantage is what vocational-technical education is all about.

Students from KAHS who travel each school day to Vo-Tech East at Oley are putting their high school years to good use. Vocational curriculum choices include drafting, data processing, electronics, cosmetology, printing, instrumentation, food preparation, auto body repair, and more. Learning valuable job skills is one more way of getting back to the basics of education.

D.O.E. Seniors Combine Education And Employment

Selected seniors who participate in the Diversified Occupational Education curriculum take advantage of an opportunity to combine academic work in the high school class room and work experience in society's main stream. Students enrolled in the program take classes on a half day basis and then leave school to spend the remainder of the day working at an approved place of employment.

Mr. Harry Tobias, program coordinator, provides student participants with career related instruction at the school and oversees the student on the job. The program is one more example of Kutztown Area School District's curriculum options which help high school students prepare in a practical way for the world of work.

Soccer Team Scores A Successful Campaign

The Cougar Soccer Varsity concluded this year's season by once again finishing with a winning record in the Berks County Soccer League, netting a 10-4-2 mark and narrowly missing the play-offs. The victory record earned the team a third place in the division standings.

Seniors who will be among the missing and surely missed when practice time rolls around again next summer are, Andy O'Neil, Jack Schonely, Andy Hill, Tom Wessner, Bob Wolff, Todd Reppert, Craig Fenstermacher, Andy Schaeffer, Bob DuBois, and Randy Moyer. However next year's squad will include nine returning letter winners.

This year Bob Wolff and Craig Fenstermacher earned spots on the All Berks County first team with Andy O'Neil, Jack Schonely, and underclassmen, Kurt Jack and Dave Hinkel receiving Honorable Mention.

The Junior Varsity completed a very tough campaign, finishing with a 5-6-4 record.

Cougar Football Squad Completes Second Varsity Season

Even though the 1977 Cougar football team had a winless season, the players detmination and team spirit lasted to the very end. The Cougars deserve alot of credit. They gave some teams a hard time with their tough defense and offense. Even when times were especially difficult, the Cougars played well.

Credit must be given to the fine coaching staff. Mr. Endy, head coach, with the help of assistants Mr. Lengel and Mr. Garrett, gave the team guidance and instruction throughout the season.

This year's team included nine seniors who deserve recognition, co-captains, Robert Sheetz, Mark Renaglia, and Randy Wert. The other seniors were Stan Bauman, Jake Papay, Darwin Dieter, John Hunt, Lamont hilbert, and Marc Desmarais. Also, honors were given to Jake Papay for Berks County Second Team defensive back. Honorable mention was given to Scott Turn for linebacker and Drake Brintzenhoff.

Records at KAHS were accomplished by Jake Papay for most points scored, Jeff Rarick for leading rusher of 227 yards. Leading tackles included Lamont Hilbert with 29, Drake Brintzenhoff with 26, and Jake Papay with 25. Most tackles in one game were made by Steve Dunkelberger with 11 unassisted tackles against Lansdale Catholic. Also, Lamont Hilbert was 4th in the Inter-County League in punting with a 31.8 yard average.

Senior Stanley Bauman uses brute strength to halt his opponent.

Tension builds as the runners come into view. Where are the Kutztown runners? Right out in front.

Once again Coach Riedel produced winning Cross Country Teams. The boys were exceptional this year, winning all eight of the league meets obtaining a season's record of sixteen-three overall, and finally becoming the 1977 Divison II Champs of Berks Country. They won the 1977 Muhlenburg AA Cross Country Individual Championship and finished second in the Berks County Conference Championship Run. The team was led by co-captains Jim Shrawder, Joel Carroll and senior Sam Yoder. Three of the members made the all Division II Squad, Joel Carroll, Jim Shrawder and Larry Shrawder. Jim Shrawder finished eighth individually in the county run.

In addition, Mr. Riedel coached a winning girls team. They won all of the dual meets and were the 1977 Berks County Conference Champions. The team was led by co-captains Dee-Dee Greenawald and Kay Haring with strong performances by Jeri Carroll, Liz Bodnyk and Marcy Dieter. Dee-Dee finished second in the county individually, sixth in the District III Championships and twenty-sixth in the state, while Jeri Carroll was sixth in the county meet and twelfth in in the district. Liz Bodnyk also placed ninth in the county meet.

Both teams performed well and are to be congratulated.

Golfers Swing Thru County Matches

A relatively inexperienced KAHS varsity golf squad coached by first year mentor Frank Wiltrout completed the 1977 campaign short in the vicory column but long in gaining valuable competitive experience which should aid the team next year.

Led by veteran senior team leader Joe Fryzol, the golfers finished Berks County competition with a three victories and seven losses record. Returning to varsity competition next year will be juniors Robert Haas, Allen Fox, and Kurt Adam; sophomores Chuck Youngerman, Harold Fleisher, and Mark Hershberger; and freshman Tim Mertz.

Cougarettes Best Season Ever

The Kutztown Varsity Field Hockey team opened their 1977 season by capturing the Harris Field Hockey Summer Champ tournament. Led by their terrific co-captains Tracy Snyder and Judi Bispels, the girls experienced their best season ever this fall with a 7-3-2 league record. The girls ended 3rd in the East and 2nd in their B division. Losing only to powerful Brandywine and Twin Valley, the end of the season was highlighted at the annual Homecoming game with a 2-0 victory over rival Fleetwood. Tracy Snyder also honored the team by being chosen by the coaches to the Berks County East All-Star team.

Girls Become Contenders

This year's tennis season for K. A. H. S. girls began with practice the last week in August and continued up until the last game. With the dedicated help of coaches Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Roth the hard work paid off in wins for the Cougars. Losing to only two schools, the girls placed third in the league.

Of a total of 15 girls on the team, the seniors were Brenda Fegely, Diane Evans, Christine Vos, Tracey Beggs, Debbie Moser, and Mandy Mertz.

The team showed a big improvement by reversing their record from last year. And at the county level, juniors Sheryl Heffner and Julie Green competed in the semifinals, and Brenda Fegely and Lori Sonday in the quarterfinal of the doubles competition. With all but one of the top five singles players returning, next year's team will certainly be a contender for the county championship.

KAHS Basketball Cougars Sweep County Division II

A talented and spirited varsity basketball squad led by seniors Bobby Wolff, Brian Barrell, Tim Kutz, and captain Andy O'Neil swept to a 16-0 mark in the Berks County League Division II Varsity Basketball League. The squad throughout the season continued to play team basketball and maintained excellent attitude and effort, getting aggressive play at the center spot from junior Curt Jack. Also contributing were juniors Bruce Held, Joey Arndt, Dalton Kehm, Allan Sanders, and sophomore Mark Hershberger.

Senior All-Berks County selection Bobby Wolff ended his outstanding varsity career with 1192 career points, netting 718 points, a KAHS single scoring record, in his final year. Bobby Wolff and Brian Barrell were selected to play in the Third Annual Duke DeLuca All-Star Game on the squad coached by Kutztown mentor John Tominosky. And the winning basketball tradition continues at Kutztown Area.

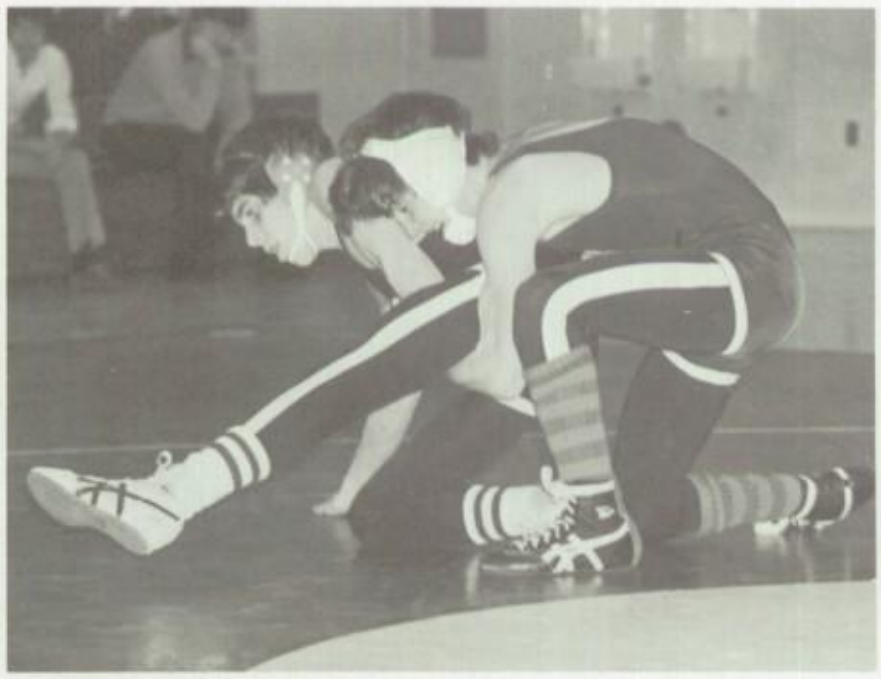
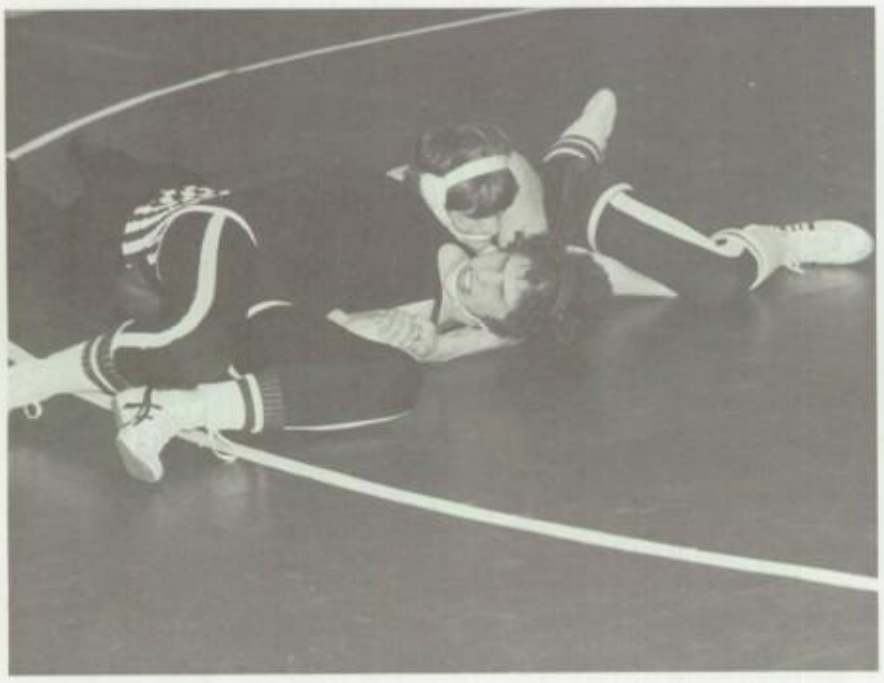
Aggressive Wrestlers Post Successful Campaign



Taking top position, junior Dave Hinkel prevents his opponent from escaping.



Junior wrestler Dave Cronrath works his opponent into a pinning position.

Kutztown High's varsity wrestlers grappled their way to a very respectful 11-4 record, posting a 5-2 Berks County League mark. The excellent finish excites thoughts of next year because the varsity included just two senior members, Robert DuBois (13-6-1) and Craig Fenstermacher (12-6-1), both valuable team members who will be sorely missed.

The team finished in second place in the Daniel Boone Christmas Tournament with sophomore sensation Rob Rarick (16-3-1) and Craig Fenstermacher tournament champions in the 145 lb. and 138. lb. weight classes respectivily. Other surprising sophomore contributors were Scott DeLong at 98 lbs. and Tim Stark at 126 lbs. Wrestling most of the varsity campaign in the 132 lb. class was sophomore Mark Long.

Rounding out the varsity lineup were outstanding junior wrestlers Dave Hinkel, Dave Cronrath, Jeff Rarrick, Steve Dunkleberger, Chuck Schmeck, and Dave Moyer. With this excellent nucleus of returning lettermen, next year should belong to the aggressive Kutztown wrestling Cougars.

Advancing to the final weekend of District III competition were Rob Rarick, Tim Stark, and Dave Hinkel. Our congratulations to these and all of the Kutztown wrestlers.

Basketball Cougarettes Complete Frustrating Campaign

The KAHS Basketball Cougarettes struggled through a tough Berks County League Varsity campaign, finishing with one league victory for the season. The spirited Kutztown squad, in spite of the league record, maintained their team pride led by co-captains Tracy Snyder and Vicki Johnson. Andrea Borst was the only other senior on the squad, and the experience gained by the juniors and sophomores should be an encouraging sign for Coach Leibensperger. Another indicator of good things to come was the success fo the jay-vees coached by Linda Helman.

KAHS Cheerleaders Have The Spirit

This year, the cheerleaders really showed us what determination is. They braved the pouring rain through the soccer and football season, and blizzard conditions during the basketball and wrestling season to cheer the aggressive Cougars on to victory. The girls kept a busy schedule, but they never stopped cheering till the last buzzer rang.

With four varsity and two junior varsity squads, thirty-four girls participated in the cheerleading program. Fall captains were Wendy Hoppes and Jeri Carroll, football; Cindy Peters and Jo Schwoyer, soccer; and Karen Rauch and Kathy Walbert, J.V. Captains for the winter squads were Denise Greenawald and Lisa Lutz, basketball; JoAnn Herman and Lori Boyer, wrestling; and Emma Jean Yoder and Dawn Werley, J.V.

FACULTY & ADMINISTRATION

School Board Tackles New Problems In '78

One Monday night a month the back walls of Mrs. Youse's German classroom open up and become the meeting room of the KAHS School Board. During these meetings, the members of the School Board make decisions that determine the manner in which things will happen concerning school district affairs. It is these people who carry the burden of running the school district smoothly. Despite the problems that accompanied the Junior High staff and students, with their move to the Senior High, the members of the Board are doing a very efficient job of coping with finance, academic and vocational educational programs, and physical facilities.

Class Of 1978:

How often do you go back and look at your old high school yearbook?" I asked my friend just recently. His answer was the same as mine, "About once a year, to see how much older I'm getting." As you read this book and look at the pictures for the first time you will take pleasure in the moment and put thoughts of the future to one side.

The future will come all too quickly for you, further schooling, a job, family, the military, etc. It is difficult to give advice to a group of people who will pursue such divergent careers. I can only say that you will all make decisions at different times of your lives. There is no magic moment at which a key is turned and the future is set before you.

You now have the life experience and educational background to make the decisions for yourselves. Above all make your own decision for "Not to decide is to decide."

Congratulations on the successful completion of your studies in the Kutztown Area Schools. May you succeed in life according to your wishes.

Message To The Class Of 1978

This past year has been a great challenge for us all. You as seniors did an excellent job of accepting the many changes that took place. Your leadership and tolerance of our close quarters helped to make our situation work.

Your ability to cope with change in the future may be a determiner of success. Society has reflected great changes since you entered school. You will provide the fabric for the future solutions to energy and saving the natural environment.

We urge you to continue your learning at whatever level you have the opportunity. As you seek your eventual place in the world of work we hope you find job satisfaction and pride in your contribution to mankind.

Best wishes for future success!

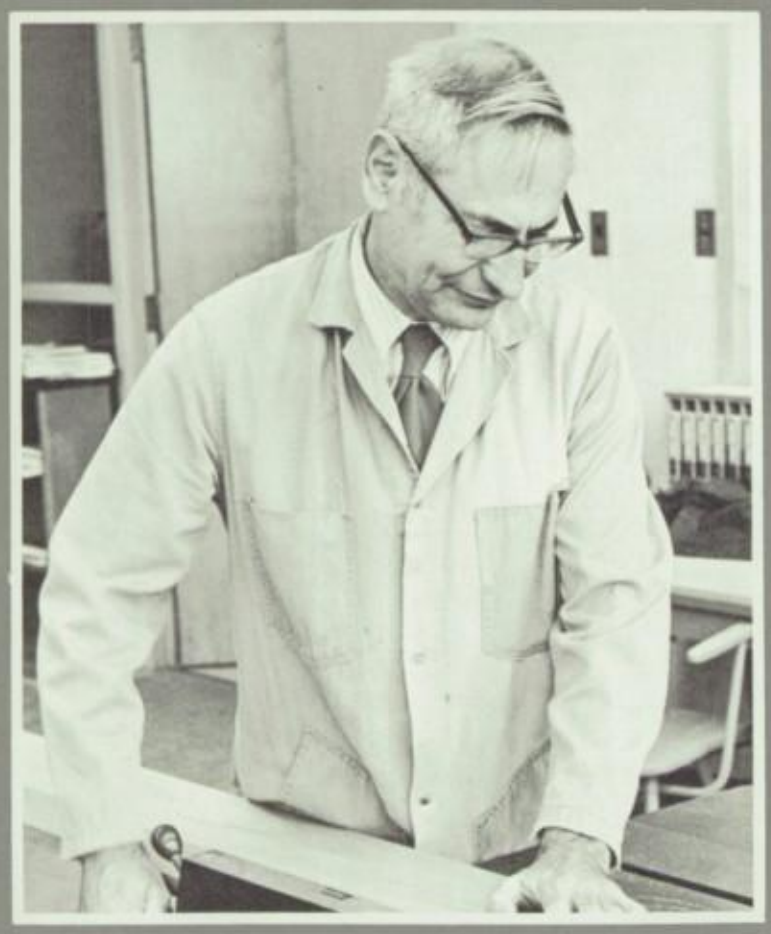
In Recognition . . .

MRS. JEAN HELD

Mrs. Held graciously accepts a farewell gift and corsage from her students.

Mrs. Jean A. P. Held taught at KAHS for thirty-five years. She demonstrated her expertise in the business field as she instructed students in business math, typing, shorthand, and office practice. She helped students develop the necessary skills to become the future business leaders of America. But even more important, she helped students develop self-discipline and a sense of pride in their work. Because of her many years of dedication to prepare students for the business world, Mrs. Held will always be remembered at KAHS.



MR. HERMAN A. MOCK

In the past years at KAHS one could take a walk through the C wing and find Mr. Mock instructing a student on the use of the machines in the shop, directing sutdents in the fundamentals of drafting, or in his office making arrangements for the spring sports programs.

Mr. Mock served as both a shop & drafting instructor but he also filled the position of faculty manager of athletics for the school.

He received his B.S. degree from Penn State University and had his first teaching job in 1936 at Mohnton High School. He came to KAHS in 1943 from the Pennsylvania State School of Aeronautics. In 1952 he took on the job as Faculty Manager of Athletics and remained on the job until he retired as of June 1977.

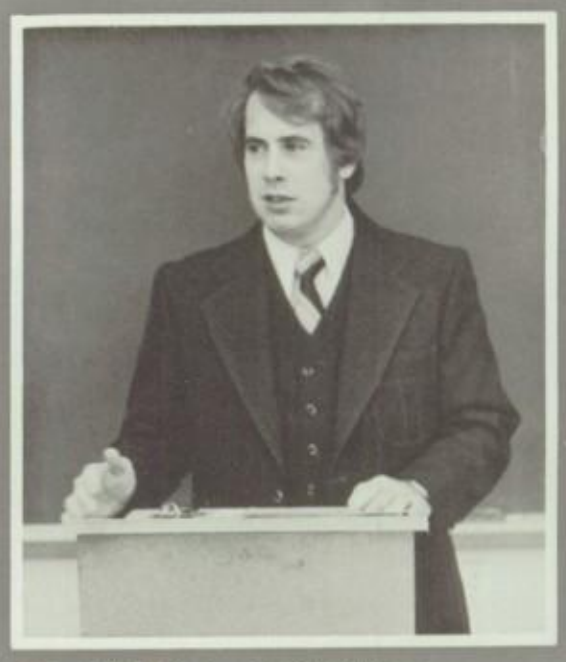
We thank Mr. Mock for giving to both the school and its students.

Isn't that where the Kansas City Chiefs come from?

"To Forget The Past Is A Sure Way To Repeat It"

"Study your history," is the frequent admonition of the social studies department. And so, KAHS student do.

American History and World cultures are the two required areas of study in the social sciences. Taking such courses as Foreign Policy I-II taught by Mr. McGonigle or American Social Problems, a new offering developed by Mr. Adams fulfills one area. The second is easily met by having such minis as Britain I-II or Japan led by Mr. Jacoby and first year teacher Mr. Hipple. Tenth graders are taught by Mr. Jacoby, Mr. McGonigle and Mr. Adams, who alternate between teaching sophomores and mini courses. Completing the staff is ninth grade teacher, Mr. Endy who also assists with sophomore offerings.



MR. HARRY A. McGONIGLE

MR. JAMES H. HIPPLE
Social Studies; Assistant Wrestling Coach; Bloomsburg State College, B. S.

Language Art Minis Take On A New Twist

There are four required areas of study in the language arts department and, fourtunately, there are talented teachers to help students fulfill these requirements. To aid students Mr. Steitz offers Shakespeare, American Musical Theater, and witty jokes. Mr. Shaw adds his personal touch to Intro. to Poetry and Editing Problems in Comp. Mr. Haring teaches freshmen and sophomore English and an occasional mini-course. Mrs. Bodnyk teaches freshmen English and also teaches a few mini-courses, such as Journalism I and II. Together these teachers help students move one step closer to fulfilling their dreams.

MR. WILLIAM E. SHAW
Language Arts; Yearbook Copy Staff Advisor; Sophomore Class Dean; Kutztown State College, B. S., M. Ed.

MRS. DAWN E. REITER

Science Program Advances

What does an eager student get when he takes parts of animals, plants, metals, solutions, rectors, and Newton's laws of motion and mixes them all together. Some might say disorganization or just a mess! But what it really comes down to is that it represents only a small sample of the advanced science program at KAHS.

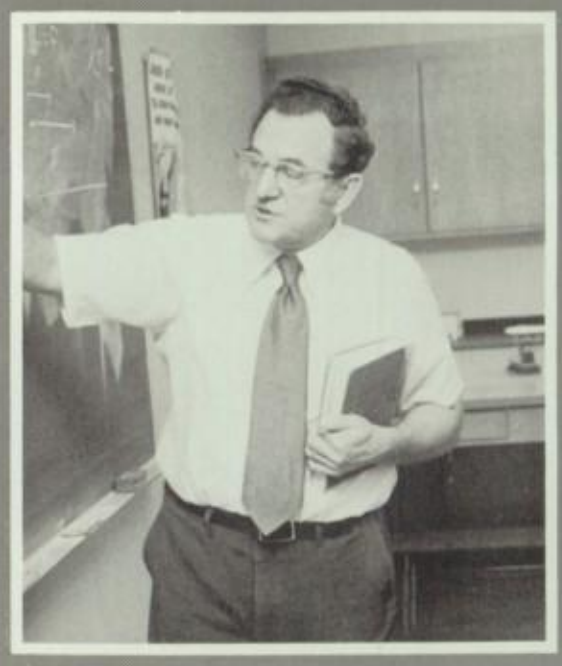
The fundamentals of science at KAHS are taught by Mr. Darion or Mr. Sheaffer. It's like an introduction and gives each student the background information he needs for his future years in the science program.

Then in tenth grade he is introduced to Mr. Breininger who talks about "individuals" in the biology room. Taking trips to Hawk Mt. or Snook's Pond and disecting frogs and worms are only some of the interesting things done in this course.

Next, he learns about chemical equations and those sulfur odors which seem to spread throughout the upper B-wing at KAHS. Chem students, with the help of their lab advisor, Mr. Riedel, seem to accomplish experiments fairly well, even though things like the breaking of beakers and heating a substance too long, always seems to happen.

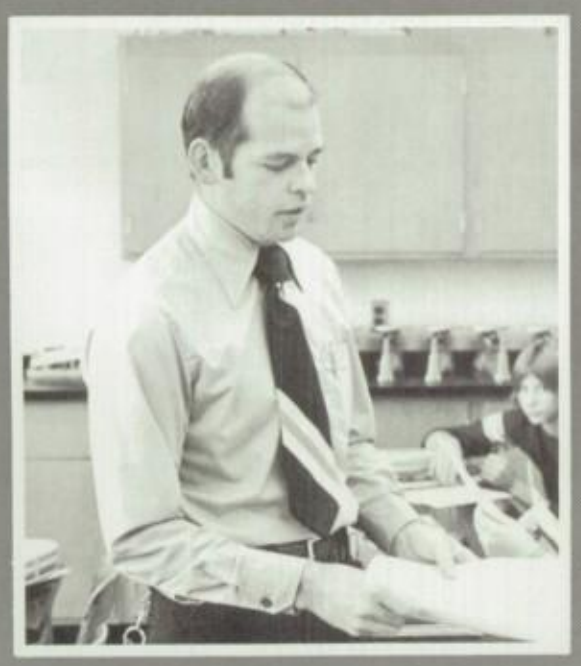
Then, with his final year, he takes physics with Mr. Angstadt. He not only learns about formulas and Kepler, but he gets to hear his philosophy, using quotes of the past. Also, in the students senior year, he is given the opportunity to take Bio II or Chem II, or even both if he desires.

Students carefully work with chromatography paper in Chem II.



MR. CHARLES Z. ANGSTADT
Physical Science; Physics; Photography Club Advisor; Freshman Class Dean; Kutztown State College, B. S., Lehigh University, M. A.

MR. WILLIAM RIEDEL
Chemistry; Advisor, Ski Club, Student Council; Coach, Cross Coutnry, Track; Sophomore Dean; West Chester State, B.S.; KSC.



MR. HAROLD D. SHEAFFER

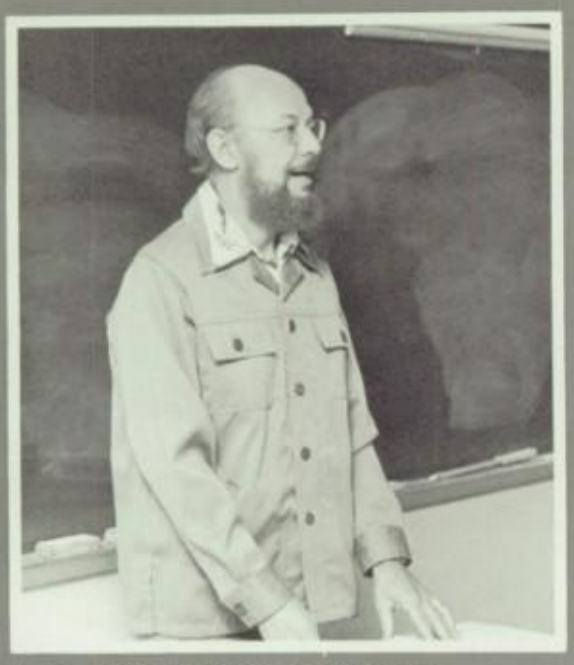
MR. STEPHEN C. BREININGER
Biology; Fly Tying Club Advisor; Sophomore Class Dean; Kutztown State College, B. S.

MR. ALAN J. DARION
Physical Science; Freshman Class Dean; City College of New York, B.S., University of Maryland, M. S., M. Ed., University of Pennsylvania.

Students Sum Up Years Of Education In Math

Could anyone ever figure out why a person can take equations with letters and solve them for X ? Or prove why two sides of a geometric figure are parallel or to determine the cosine of thirty degrees? Well, KAHS does a fine job of teaching these mathematical processes, even though some of us might have a doubt of why and how.

During the first year at KAHS, the math program introduces the freshman mathematician to Mr. Garrett who teaches first year Algebra. Geometry is the next adventure. This is taught by Mr. Macaluso. The third year brings juniors to Mr. Walker who teaches Algebra II. And then if students want a greater challenge, he can take Linear Algebra and Probability. In the final year, seniors get to meet Mr. Gougler, if they haven't already, and learn all about Trigonometry. And then if a student still yearns for another math course, he can always take calculus.



MR. RICHARD C. GOUGLER
Mathematics; Projector Club Adv.; Director, Senior Class play, Musical; Faculty Manager of Music; Sr. Dean; Muhlenberg, AB., Rutgers, M.A.

MR. DAVID C. WALKER

Foreign Languages Agreeably Co-Exist

Rooms E-9 and E-8. It is amazing how two rooms so close together could be so many countries apart.

Room E-9 is occupied by Frau Youse. In this room ambitious students who feel a need to understand the customs and language of the German people meet once a day. Starting in 9th grade, students begin the studies until their Senior year.

Right next door and sometimes in the D.O.E. room, Senora Payne offers the same type of program for those students who are interested in learning the ways and language of the Spanish speaking world.

Together, but each in their own way, Frau Youse and Senora Payne give students a greater understanding of languages and cultures other than that of the U.S.

Business Dept. Prepares Secretaries And Accountants For Careers

To the majority of students at KAHS the business department is a necessity! Business and college preparatory students alike partake in courses from Mr. Lengel's typing classes to Mrs. Strahn's notehand class. Of course we can't forget shorthand with Mrs. Dougherty. These are just a few of the courses offered to the students by the faculty. Then there are always the fun times to be remembered. Accounting students will never forget Mr. Horst introducing them to Joe Schmoe. Likewise Notehand students will never forget using Mr. TV to help them remember their rules.

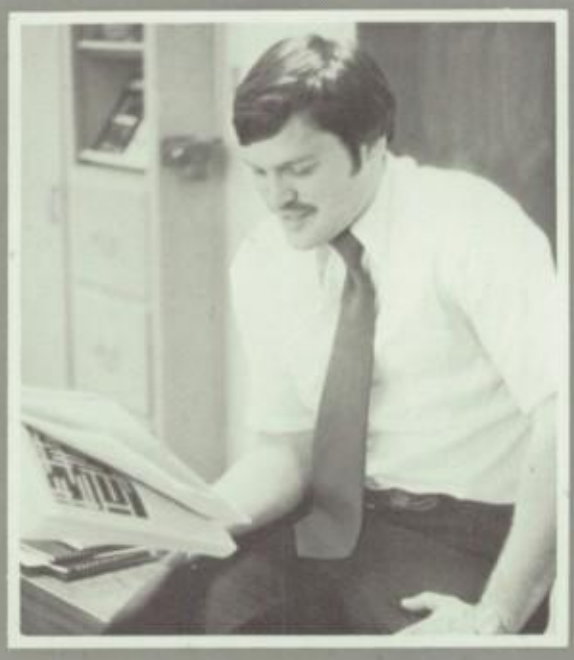
With these experienced teachers we will no doubt be putting out some top notch secretaries and accountants in the future. Secretary to the president, watch out!!

Wendy Hoppes demonstrates good typing technique.

MR. ROBERT L. HORST
Business; Ski Club Advisor; Pinochle Club Advisor; Junior Class Dean; Elizabethtown College, B. S., Trenton State College, M. Ed.

MRS. TINA M. STRAHN
Business; FBLA Advisor; Sophomore Class Dean; Elizabethtown College, B. S., Bloomsburg State College, M. Ed.

MRS. CHRISTINE M. DOUGHERTY
Business; FBLA Advisor; Office Aides Advisor; Junior Class Dean; Bloomsburg State College B. S., Kutztown State College.



MR. DEAN M. LENGEL
Business; Assistant Football Coach; Sophomore Class Dean; Shippensburg State College, B.S.

KAHS Music Department Offers Tuneful Variety

There are people in our music department who through experience, shape and mold the dreams of students that seek their advice. Among these people are a band director and his two assistants and a vocal music director.

Mr. Huyett, the band director, also directs the stage band and the pit orchestra for the all-school musical. He is assisted by Mr. Taylor and Mr. Schwoyer. Under their direction students learn both the fundamental and the advanced techniques of playing an instrument.

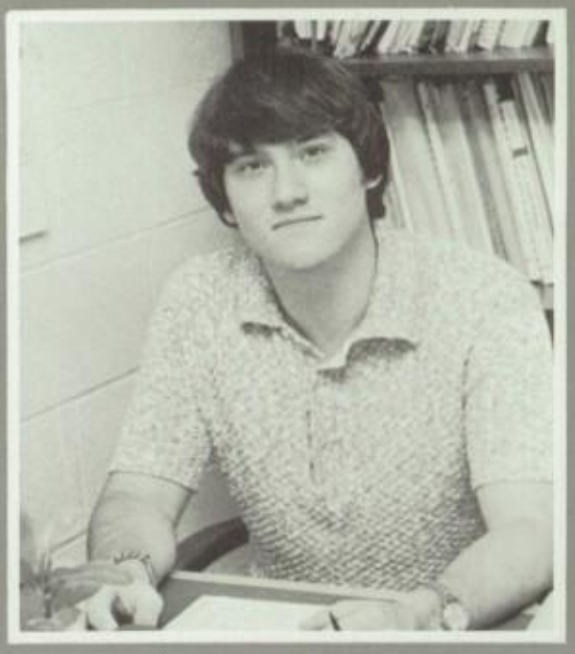
Right across the hall from the band office is the office of the vocal music director, Mrs. Knauer. Vocal music includes teaching ninth grade general music, pop group, chorus and the musical.

Pop group prepares for winter concert.

Mr. Huyett teaches Mary Weida the proper technique on the sousaphone.

MR. RICHARD A. HUYETT
Instrumental Music; Band Director; Orchestra Director for Musical; Junior Class Dean; West Chester State College, B. S.

MRS. LUCINDA B. KNAUER
General Music; Director, Chorus, Pop Group, Musical; Sophomore Dean; College, Lebanon Valley, Penn State, West Chester State, B.S.



MR. JACK M. TAYLOR
Instrumental Music; Junior High Band Director; High School Assistant Band Director; West Chester State College, B. S.

MR. STANFORD R. SMITH, JR.
Industrial Arts; Senior Class Advisor; Lehigh County Community College; Millersville State College, B. S.

Shop: Creative But Noisy

Under the skilled instruction of Mr. Stanford Smith, students create practical but artistic pieces in wood, plastic, or metal.

Mr. Harold Sheaffer's drafting room is located just across the hall. Here he patiently helps creative minds design new housing plans.

In spite of the noise in the shop, creative geniuses are at work.

Charles Schaffer prepares to drill a piece of electrical apparatus.

Jewelry and metalwork allows the student to be both creative and productive.

Senior Tom Wessner explores creativity via the potter's wheel.

MRS. NITA A. DIETRICH
Fine Arts and Crafts; Art Club Advisor; Yearbook Advisor; Stage Manager; Senior Class Dean; Kutztown State College, B. S. in Art Ed.

Future Rembrandts Create New Masterpieces

At KAHS the art room buzzes with activity. Under the experienced direction of Mrs. Dietrich students throw clay pots, design jewelry, silk screen posters, and carve wood pieces. Mrs. Dietrich works closely with students to aid them in developing skills in drawing and painting. The student handiwork is displayed at open house, the spring concert and in showcases through out the school.

Physical Education Builds Stronger Students

Physical education offers students a variety of sports to choose from, including tennis, archery, volleyball, wrestling, soccer, football, hockey, folk dancing, basketball, and softball. Miss Helman and Mr. Burrows work together to plan a program that appeals to everyone.

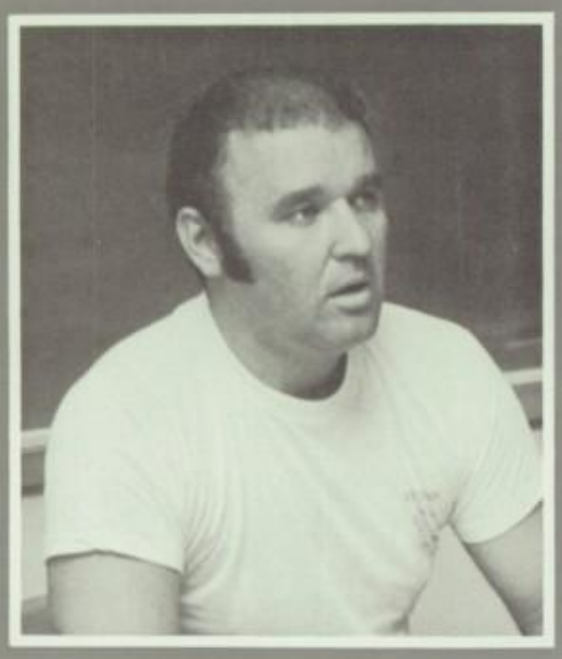
Mr. Tominosky, Mr. Burrows, and Miss Helman keep the Health department functioning. Learning first aid, human anatomy, and the effects of drugs and alcohol help us to become more physically aware and helpful citizens.

Shana shows her skill in archery.

Boys in field hockey, what's the world coming to?

Dodge that man, Tom.

Eddie, "Ballet and Basketball are two different things."



MR. BRUCE R. BURROWS
Health and Phys. Ed.; Varsity K advisor; Head Wrestling Coach; Head Track and Field Coach; East Stroudsburg, B.S.

MRS. DORIS H. LUCKENBILL
School Nurse; Slimnastics Club Advisor; Duke University, B.S.

MISS LINDA J. HELMAN
Health and Phys. Ed.; GAA Advisor; Varsity Field Hockey Coach; J. V. Basketball Coach; East Stroudsburg S.C., B.S.

MR. JOHN T. TOMINOSKY
Health; Athletic Director; Head Basketball Coach; Pennsylvania State University, B.A., M.Ed.

A Spoonful Of Sugar Helps The Medicine Go Down!

All of us who have ever developed any kind of illness while in school know how important our school nurse, Doris Luckenbill is.

She is always there to lend a helping hand for any sickness from a headache to a sprained ankle.

Although some of us have been lucky enough to never need her services while in school, we always know in the back of our minds that she will be there willing to give of her services if the need arises.

We are lucky to have such a fine lady on the school staff who can always be depended on in our time of need.

Can you hear anything Andrea?

Vocational Department Prepares Students

For those students who are preparing themselves for the years ahead, they can always count on the Vo-ag department and Vocational Home Ec. Mr. Reinert and Mr. Heimbach keep the students busy thinking about the future, how to cope with it, and planning for it. Keeping up with the newest methods in agriculture is important for a prosperous future.

In the Home Ec. department, Mrs. Hechinger is busy preparing students for successful home life. How to cook, sew, plan, and care for a family are the major concerns in the Home Ec. department.

So smooth you can spread it with a paper knife.

Welding is one of the many electives offered in the Ag shop.

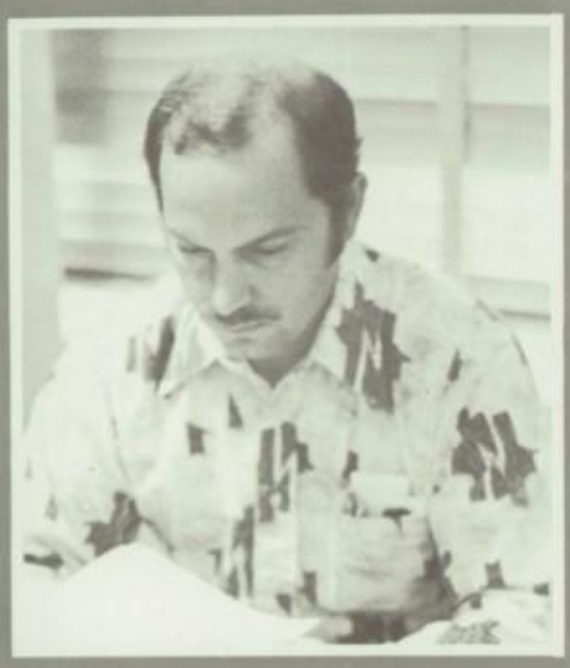
A Helpful Guidance Department Serves KAHS Students Well

MRS. MARCIA I. SKILES
Counseling; National Honor Society Advisor; Reading Hospital of Nursing, R. N.; West Chester State College, B.S. E.; Kutztown State College, M.Ed.

MR. JOHN VIGLIONE
Counseling; National Honor Society Advisor; Moravian College B.A.; Kutztown State College, M.Ed.



MR. HAROLD W. TOBIAS
D.O.E. Instructor, Temple University, B.S.

At the beginning of each school year a throng of students pours into the guidance office with schedule conflicts. Problems such as having two classes scheduled in the same period or having electives that weren't scheduled last year are solved efficiently by our guidance counselors.

After the scheduling rush is over appointments are made for private conferences. The counselors answer scores of questions such as: "When should I take S.A.T.'s?", "How do I fill out this job application?" and, "When can I get a financial aid form?"

The people who work in the guidance office are Mrs. Skiles, who this year guides the freshmen and juniors, and Mr. Viglione who assists the sophomores and encourages the seniors. Both counselors are advisors of the National Honor Society. Mr. Tobias is also a part of the guidance office. He is the instructor of the Diversified Occupational Education curriculum, otherwise known as D.O.E. Another very important member is Mrs. Hershberger, the office secretary. She is responsible for the efficient operation of the office. Together these four people manage to help all of us through our high school years.

"Can I fit some electives into my schedule?" queries Patsy.

It could be listed under history . . . or art . . . or Janson . . . or . . ." ponders Shana.

BELOW: Maria Sanelli takes advantage of peace and quiet in the library to concentrate. Library aide, Michele Gladney adds a pretty smile to "Can I help you?"

IMC Offers Opportunities For Intellectual Growth

Students enter the library, the doors slamming behind them. People are found among the books, scanning the shelves for their favorite author. Others sit comfortably in lounge chairs, involved in a magazine or newspaper article. Sounds of "three to a table" and "quiet girls" break the silence. The bookcases are stacked with additional knowledge from the Jr. High.

The library research sources are excellent. If students do have trouble, Mrs. Scheel, Mr. Carlson, or Mrs. Curry are ready to help us. Another thing the library excels in is visual aides. Mr. Gledhill runs the AV department with his assistants who deliver and work the equipment.

The library contains a vast amount of information, which students often don't use to their advantage. But regular visits to the library can be a meaningful part of any high school student's educational experience.

Cooks And Custodians Keep House At KAHS

MRS. BERYL CARL, cafeteria manager.

MR. LESTER MECK, district maintenance supervisor.

Did you ever stop and think about how clean the school looks when you get here in the morning. Or did you ever stop and think about how hard the cooks work to prepare our meals? These people, are most often the most forgotten people when it comes to the student body. The custodians work hard, late into the night to make sure the school is ready to run the next school day. They are hard working people who get the job done right! The cooks on the other hand are here early in the morning to begin to prepare our lunches. This year they are working extra hard to supply food for 4 luncheon periods instead of 3 like other years. They each add something to making a well balanced meal for us, the hungry students. Lets start to appreciate these people more, and realize how vital a part they play in running the school throughout the year!

CUSTODIANS: Lester Kerchner, head custodian; Carl Cronrath. Not pictured, George Ondeck, Mabel Vanderpool, May Graff, Warren Graff, David Moyer.

SENIORS

It seems like yesterday that we sat in Elementary school learning how to add, subtract, how to read and write. Even then, we wondered where life would take us, what we would do when we became older. High school seemed to be a million years away. And now, here we are living the years that then were only dreams.

Every school year seniors fall victim to senioritis; but relax, it's not fatal. The condition lasts for a period of nine months. The symptoms start in September, peak in May, and end in June. Characteristics of senioritis include singing in the halls, throwing peanuts in the cafe, cutting classes to sit in the lobby, day dreaming in physics, going to McDonald's during Friday club period, and actually laughing at jokes by Mr. Steitz and Mr. Horst. The only known cure for this condition is graduation. After graduation, the symptoms disappear and the people return to their old selves once again. That's not the last of senioritis though, it will strike again next year.

As Seniors, we can look back at the hassles of one of the big decisions we had to make: The Senior Class Trip. Remembering all those times we had to devote in homeroom to decide whether it would be the Poconos or New York. It was finally determined and New York was the victor. Now we all realize that June 7 is one of the last times we will all be together as a class before graduation and will be deeply remembered.

With the school year coming to a close we began to think about buying tuxedoes or dresses, making table arrangements, and buying flowers. We dreamed of ourselves dancing gracefully across the floor with our date for the evening. All of these things could only mean one thing . . . the prom. As our dreams became realities we found ourselves eating at our tables, taking pictures, dancing and just talking with our friends. All of this was over far too quickly and we found ourselves wishing that time would stand still and we could remain here forever. Looking back now all we have left are the memories which we will cherish forever!

Further education, the dream and desire of every individual. Exactly what our future education holds for us we cannot say. Perhaps from our class a Nobel prize winner will emerge or a conductor of the Boston Pops. But the future depends on how well we apply what we have learned in years past. KAHS has prepared us for the future, now it is our turn as graduating seniors to choose a field in which we can develop and grow to our fullest extent.

Seniors Stage Successful Class Play

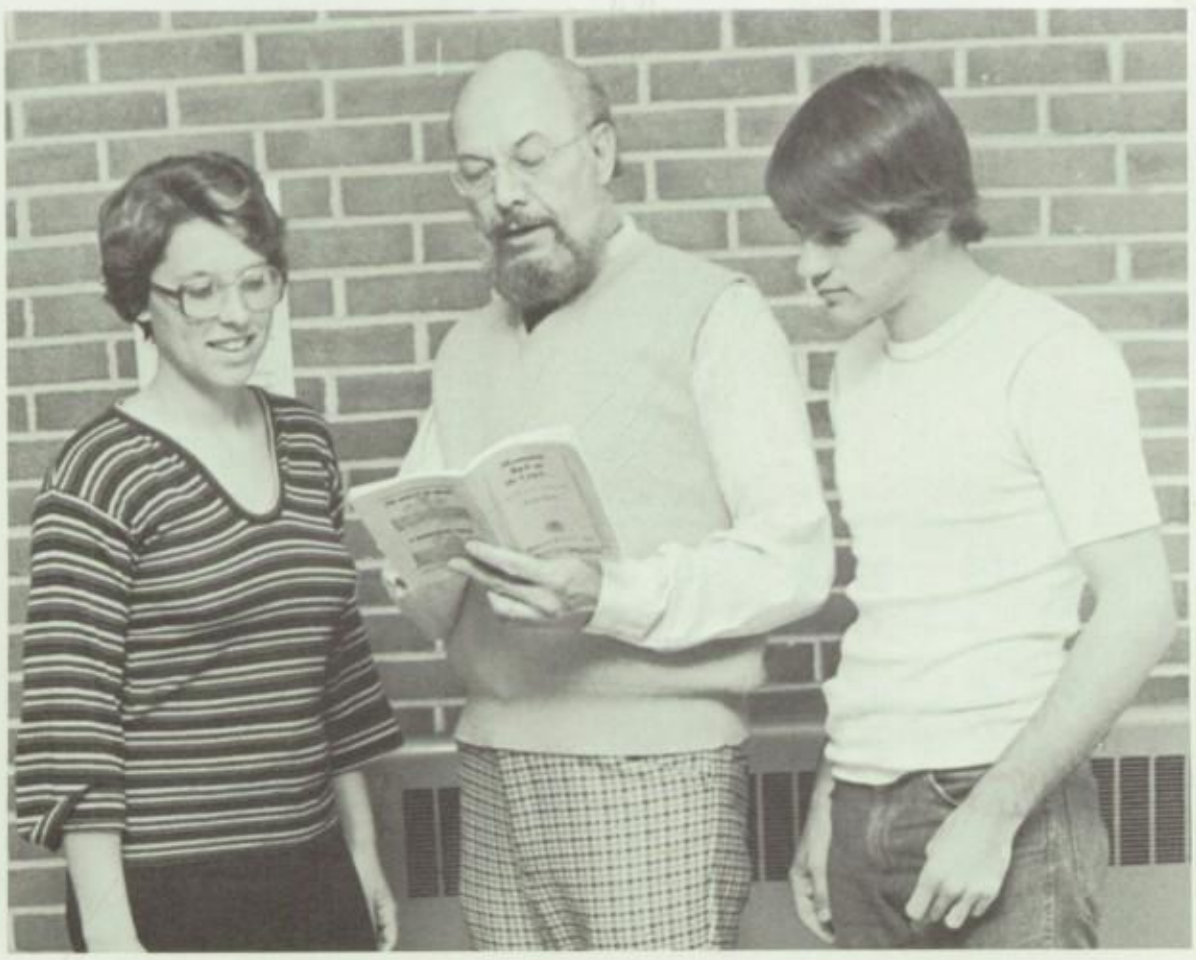
The nights were November 3 and 5, 1977. The play was MEANWHILE BACK ON THE COUCH. The cast was superb. The audiences were entertained and appreciative. And the class treasury profited.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Richard Gougler, senior thespians Joel Carroll, Kay Haring, Judi Bispels, Jim Schrawder, Todd Reppert, Denise Greenawald, Sam Yoder and Jo Ann Herman fell out of windows, crashed through doors, strutted around in jockey shorts, clutched and kissed and voiced the words all to the audience's delight. Assisting the performers were student directors Tracy Beggs and Craig Fenstermacher. The combined talents and efforts of the cast, the director, and the student directors produced a highly successful event.

Sam Yoder, playing the psychiatrist's patient, leaps into the waiting arms of Nurse Bispels and the flirty girl next door played by JoAnn Herman.

Where else would you expect to find a psychiatrist's patient but on the doctor's couch?

LEFT: Denise Greenawald gets ready to jump after passing the Reader's Digest test - "Are You Suicide Prone". ABOVE: Joel Carroll finds himself in another "helpless" situation.



Mr. Gougler, play director, briefs student directors, Tracey Beggs and Craig Fenstermacher.

Todd Reppert rehearses his lines before the "big night".

Our Exchange Student

Leticia Terrazas

Being an exchange student is not all fun and games. It can sometimes be a very frustrating experience. Can you imagine a teacher asking you a question in a language you cannot understand or worse yet try asking a teacher a question in a foreign language and see how many could answer you. These are just a few of the problems faced by our exchange student this year, Leticia Terrazas.

Letty, as she prefers to be called, was born on July 14, 1959 in Chihuahua, Mexico. She has five brothers and sisters and she enjoys spending time taking care of her dogs. Back in Mexico she was active in the school chorus and participated in the theatre, but she also enjoys dabbling at the piano and painting. Her future plans are to become an interior decorator upon returning to Mexico.

Letty has made many friends at KAHS and she will be missed when she returns home. We would like to thank her for giving a year of her life towards enriching the lives of many of our students, and we wish her the best of luck in all she attempts.

Letty demonstrates her creative ability on a piece of art work.

Letty listens quietly as Mrs. Payne teaches a Spanish class.

Making new friends is an important part of being an exchange student.

Lisa Lutz

Our Junior Miss

On June 12, 1977, Connie Behler, Diane Evans, Tracy Snyder, Sandy Kemp and Lisa Lutz traveled to Schuylkill Valley High School to decide who would be the Junior Miss for the class of 1978. After the preliminary interviews, Lisa Lutz was chosen to represent KAHS in the Berks County Junior Miss Pageant in October.

After many tiring rehearsals, the big day finally arrived on October 1st.

The categories the girls were judged on were physical fitness, scholastic achievements, talent and poise, and appearance. Each category added a percentage of points to the girls' final score.

Lisa's talent was a dramatic interpretation from the GLASS MENAGERIE.

The climax of the evening was the awards presentation. Lisa was presented with the Spirited Junior Miss Award.

Lisa enjoyed meeting all the girls and has formed many new friendships through this experience. She extends her gratitude to all her friends at KAHS who supported her. She will always cherish the memories of being Kutztown's Junior Miss.

Lisa flashes a brilliant smile for the onlooking audience.

Lisa takes time out from her busy schedule to study quietly in the library.

Being head majorette is only one of the many activities Lisa is involved in at KAHS.

"Quality not quantity" could easily have been the motto for this year's track team. The small group, coached by Mr. Burrows with Mr. Reidel and Mr. Hipple assisting, had a team record of 4-3 and a league record of 3-1. During the season numerous school records were broken including the 2 mile relay, 440 relay, and the 330 intermediate hurdles. At districts, Dave Cronrath took 6th place in the

Girls' Track And Field Team Vaults To Successful Season

Under the capable direction of head coach Mr. Ken Garrett, the girl's track squad posted a five wins and four losses season effort in duel competition. Topping off the year were some excellent individual performances in district and state competition.

At the District III meet held at Shippensburg State College, distance runner Denise Greenawald finished third in the two mile event. Andrea Borst, Kutztown's excellent field event competitor, took first place and became district champ in the discus.

Both girls went on to compete at the state meet held also at Shippensburg with Andrea Borst bringing home a fourth place medal for her efforts. In addition to these fine senior members other veteran competitors who will be missed next year include Liz Bodnyk, Tracy Snyder, Lisa Lutz, Julie Wagner, Karen Kriske, Vicki Johnson, Rhonda Reichert, Debbie Angstadt, and Amanda Mertz.

Cougar Baseball Team Is A Hit

Coaches Moyer and Collier led their team into a heavy schedule this year under the field leadership of senior captains Andy O'Neil, team leader in hits, and Joe Fryzol. Other seniors on the team were: Ron Fegely, Bob Sheetz, Troy Arndt, Mark Meitzler, and Dean Zimmerman.

Although the Cougars played well, they totaled a record of 3-12. Their record, however, was not totally evident of the Cougar's style of play. At times, the Cougars played at the calibre of a championship team, but things just didn't fall in place.

There were some bright spots in the season, especially the play of some of the underclassmen leaving hope, for promise of good seasons to come. Even though this ended up as a season for building, Kutztown Baseball earned and kept the respect of teams around the county.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM: SEATED IN FRONT: Kanda Dierolf, manager; Taylor Fenstermacher, Kevin Fegley, Kevin Koch, Robert Smith, Tim Mertz, Tim Behm, Patricia Smith, manager; Mr. Stanford Smith, coach. ROW 2: Ted Stump, Jeff Ebling, Ralph Dengler, Robert Schaffer, Dwayne Scheidt, Toby Swisher. ROW 3: Wayne Shade, Roger Hassler, Harold Fleisher, David Rothermel, James DeLair, Collin Heffley.

Girls' Softball Swings Into Action

As soon as the calendar turns to March, the KAHS girls' softball team hits the field, raring to go once again. Coached by Miss Leibensperger and co-captained by Jessie Reed, the lone senior, and Sheryl Heffner, a junior, the team plunged into its schedule.

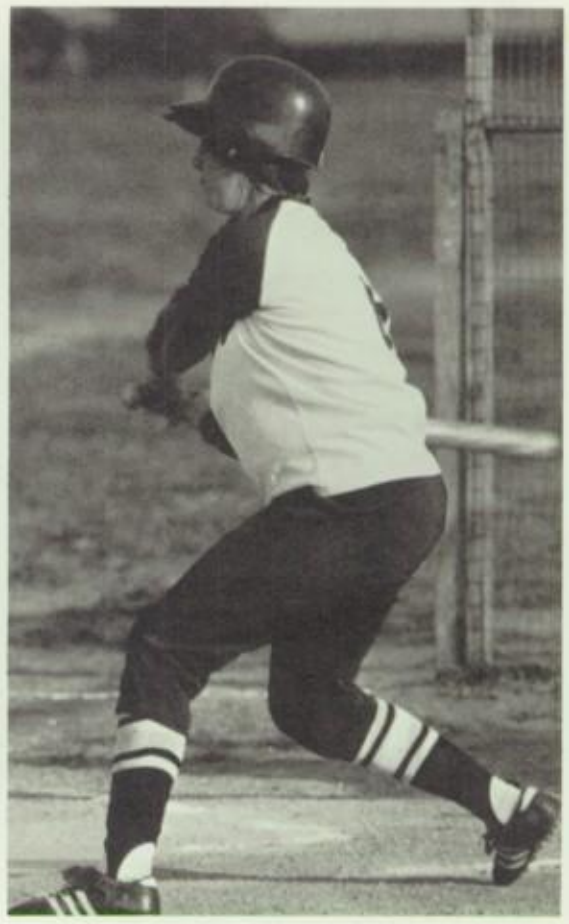
Although wins were not abundant, the young team showed lots of promise for a few years to come. They made quite a few strong showings against many powers of the league and have earned a noticeable aura of respect.

Since this was a building year, only the future will show the foundations laid down by the 1978 Softball Cougarettes.

Sheryl Heffner draws back and throws the ball.

Jessie manages to get the ball in her glove.

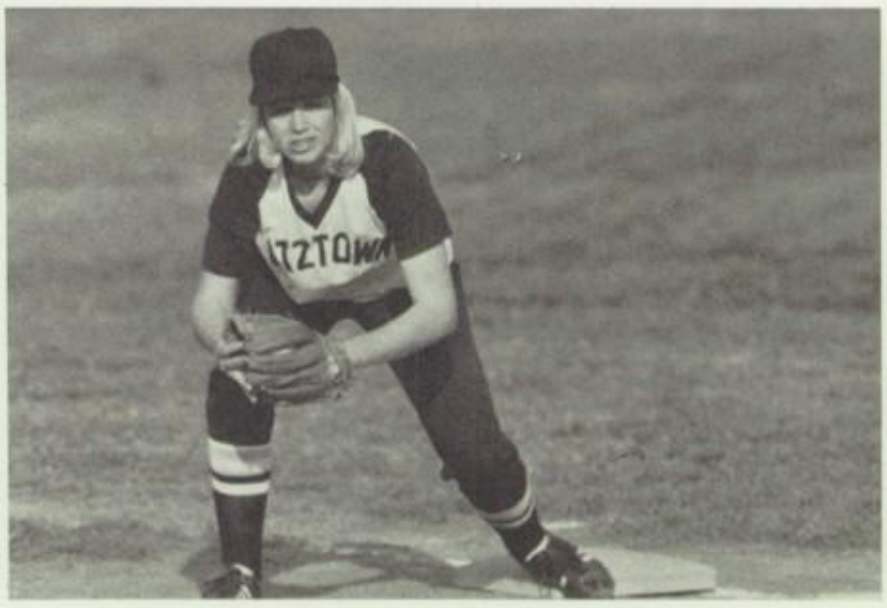
Julie Green follows through the pitch in graceful form.



Dori swings at the ball with determination.

Vicki Ream dodges the ball in order to get to base.

Catcher Heidi Moyer is ready to do her job.



Dawn Dengler is poised for a catch.

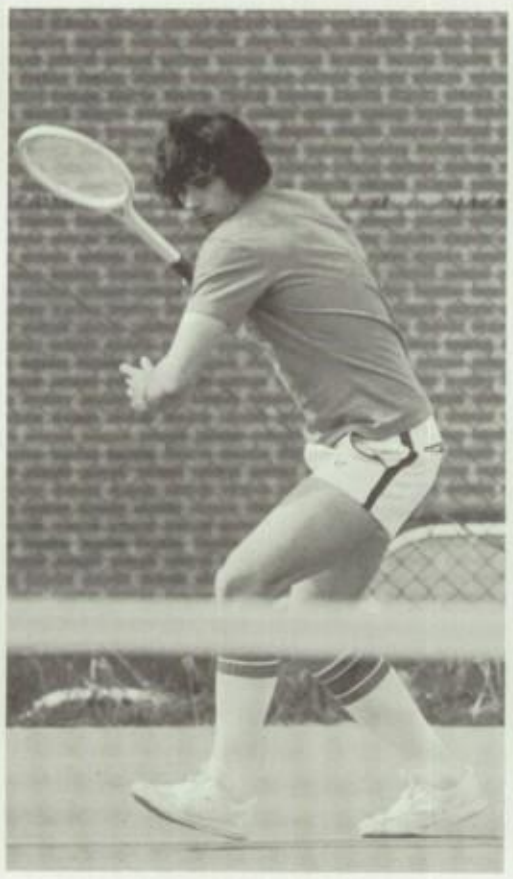
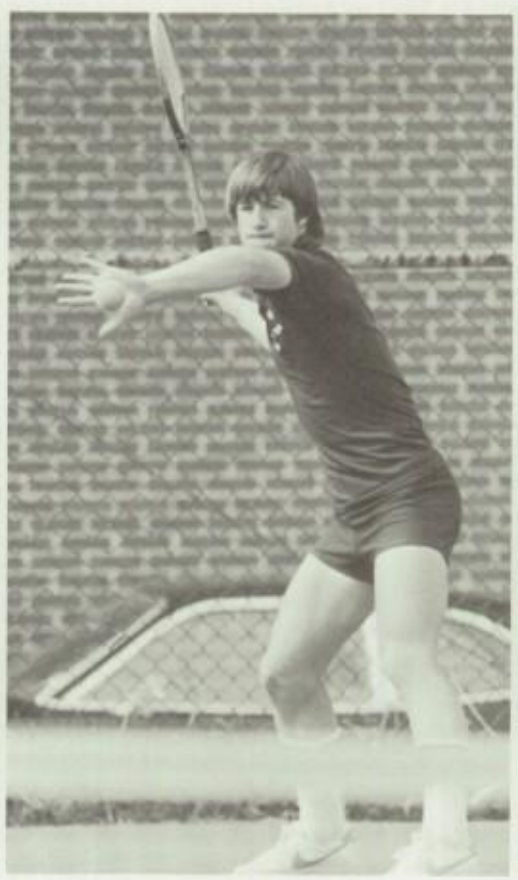
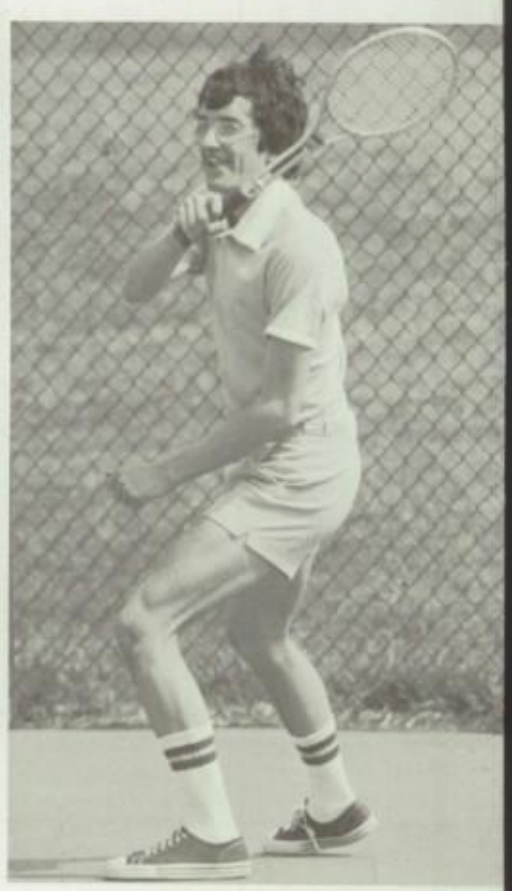
Cougar Netmen Capture County Championship

The KAHS varsity tennis team, under the capable direction of coach Harry McGonigle, smashed their way to the Berks County tennis championship. The team completed a perfect season in county Division II play and then went on to oust Wilson in the Berks County Final. The varsity squad was headed this year by seniors Bob Wolff, Tim Kutz, Andy Schaffer, and Jake Papay. The fifth varsity starter was sophomore Ken Loose.

In addition to the county title, the team also placed two starters, Bob Wolff and Ken Loose, on the Berks County All-Star team and seniors Tim Kutz and Andy Schaffer won the county doubles title. It was truly a championship season.







Senior VIP's: Robert Wolff, Jacob Papay, Andrew Schaeffer, and Tim Kutz.

"How To Succeed" Hits KAHS Stage

This year's musical "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" got off to an early start. Tryouts were held in mid-November and parts were announced then. However, it was not until January, that the cast, with Mr. Gougler producing and directing the acting and Mrs. Knauer directing the vocal part of the show began their preparation for the performance.

Both directors and cast alike worked long and hard to make the performances on March 10 & 11 exceed the standards set by the school's previous musicals. And they did. The show was a smashing success. Senior leads, Richard Gates and Sandy Kemp, together with Andy Hill, Kim Oswald and Judi Bispels, led the cast to a standing ovation performance.

Rosemary (Sandra Kemp) helps Finch (Richard Gates) get started in business.

Finch and J. B. Biggley (Tim Peters) reminisce about college days.

A Night In White Satin

The 1978 edition of the Junior-Senior Prom was held this year at beautiful Stokesay Castle in Reading, Pa. Approximately two hundred people attended the gala affair, and after a welcome by Junior Class Vice-President Aimee Schappell, everyone enjoyed dinner by candle light and dancing to the exciting music by Sky Line.

Senior Dream Of Commencement Becomes A Reality

Mr. Butler, Superintendent Hillman, Pastor Bispels, Senator O'Pake.

On Friday night, June 16, 1978, the Class of 1978 became high school graduates, completing another chapter in their individual lives. Senior High School Principal John Butler presided over the ceremony which included excellent speeches by salutatorian Todd Reppert and valedictorian Tim Kutz. Commencement speaker, State Senator Michael O'Pake, challenged the class to optimistically step into the future in spite of some of the harsh realities to be found in contemporary American life.

The event concluded with the presentation of the class gift by President Kay Haring and the awarding of diplomas by Kutztown Superintendent of schools Arnold Hillman.

Finishing touches for the final night.

Solemn faces anticipate the walk across the stage.

Vicki Johnson, vice-president, and Kay Haring, class president lead the processon.
